Weekly Message received of Mary, Queen of Peace, transmitted in Villa La Angostura, Neuquen, Argentina, to the visionary Friar Elías

Dear children of Mine,

Today I place each one of you in My embrace of love, so that you may feel My maternity within your hearts.

My children, praised be the homes of the families that open the door of their hearts to the Queen of Heaven.

Praised be the families that pray with Me every day, to reach conversion and redemption.

Praised be the families that teach their children to pray with the heart in the first years of life, for My motherly Heart will be with them.

Praised be the adolescents and the youth who find My Son in Communion because, as an example of faith, they will open the door to those who are lost, without love and protection.

Praised be the homes that day by day are consecrated to the victorious Light of the Immaculate Heart, for I assure you that God will be present through Me to guide you in faith and hope.

Dear children, today My motherly aspiration is that all homes may praise the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Today I come to you to ask for prayers for the families of the world since few live the Commandments that My Son has given you.

Today My Heart also rejoices for so much beauty created by God the Creator in this region of South America. Behold, dear children of Mine, how God is withdrawn in the silence of this entire blessed place.

For this motive of joy and praise, I ask you to unite in these times as one network of prayer throughout Argentina. I ask, out of love for God and everything created by Him, that you be one in spirit, in heart, and in consciousness.

Dear children, God expects from Argentina the absolute awakening to prayer and to the conversion of all those causes that offend the Creator. God has precious Designs and Graces for every nation that, above all things, is part of the universe of God.

Welcome the Holy Spirit in your homes, open the door to It so that just like in the Cenacle of the Virgin Mary, your spirits of love may be guided by Its blessed gifts. When My Heart approaches your lives, it is the Holy Spirit cultivated within My Heart that radiates to help you take steps towards the immaculate faith in It.

Dear children, this week, may your homes be consecrated to the infinite Home of the Immaculate Heart.

My children, may faith always motivate you to walk through the path of My beloved Son, through the path of your conversion.

I thank the presence of all My Children of the blessed Patagonia. Now and always, the Blessed Lady of Guadalupe blesses the beloved remaining indigenous people.

May Peace be with you and with your families.

Thank you for responding to My call for Peace!

Mary, Queen of Peace and Mother of the Sacred Family
