DAILY MESSAGE OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

I come to the world to call those who consciously prepare for My second return to humanity.

For that reason, I come in search of the most imperfect.

I come in search of those who sin the most, those most ungrateful and unfaithful, so that someday, through the vast offering of My Love, they may learn to be good, just, charitable and merciful people.

You will never see Me in the palaces, amongst the rich, with those who call themselves powerful, or those who say they know everything. I hope that the Law itself will show them the Truth, and they cease to see the mirages of their own self.

I come seeking those who decide to follow Me until the end, in spite of carrying their defects, imperfections and sins every day.

I do not come seeking realized or skilled souls, no.

Just as I once came more than two thousand years ago, I come from the Universe to form new apostles, who with all their miseries, complaints and lack of understanding, will allow themselves to be lead by the guidance of My Love, an immutable, unconditional and faithful Love, which understands all things, which accepts all things, which endures all things.

My wish is that these new and last apostles, who will be formed to serve Me and live Me, be like Me, or better than I Am; that they are capable of not selling the Master as He was sold for thirty-three coins; that they dare to learn from faithfulness, just as My Father teaches them to be faithful.

To achieve this degree of union with Me, you only need to be obedient and no longer deceive yourselves, because obedience will protect you from yourselves. Thus, I will be able to place you, in spite of what happens, in extreme situations of risk or emergency so that you may testify to My Consoling Love.

Those who are not here amongst you today, it is because they were not obedient, and as a result, did not manage to be faithful to me.

Obedience is not just to do perfect things for Me, but rather it is to be true and transparent with oneself, with life, with your fellow being; it is to say "I do not understand", but it is also to accept and to yield.

Today I tell you this because difficult times will come, just as they did for the apostles.

It is time for you to sincerely ask yourselves everything that I tell you today; thus, I will find more refuge in your hearts.

I thank you for keeping My Words in your heart!

Who blesses you,

Your Master, Christ Jesus
