WEEKLY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF SALAMANCA, STATE OF GUANAJUATO, MEXICO, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Child, relive the Passion of your Lord and your God, now, with a look of wisdom.

In other times, the human heart suffered with Christ, for His flagellation and death on the cross, because it did not understand the sacrifice of the Lord and why He had to suffer all those things.

Today, your Lord and your God returns to the world, seeking the love of other times, renewing the union you had with Him. However, now, after His death, Resurrection, and Ascension to the Kingdom of the Heavens, you have already learned many things and can understand that His sacrifice was not only pain, but rather an absolute love that transcended the body, the mind, the soul, the heart and expanded itself beyond the Universes.

Recover on this Friday - which is also holy, if you live it so - the commitment with Christ, giving Him such a great love as the one He gave you on the cross.

The Cross of your Lord did not finish in the Calvary when they brought Him down dead in the arms of Mary. The cross is a state of consciousness of absolute surrender that you are being called to live, to give back to the Lord the love that once He gave to you.

Multiply the Love of Christ, embracing the cross of these times, which is larger than the Cross that once He carried to the Calvary. In that moment, it was cross of ignorance and of denial; now, it is of indifference, of rejection, of lack of love and absence of God in the human heart.

The hearts of humankind, child, have still not understood the cross and have not opened themselves to embrace it, as the Lord did at the peak of His surrender.

Christ returns so that you may share with Him the cross of these times and you will do it so by loving your brothers and sisters, each day, with a love that overflows from your spirit and transforms the human condition which until today has prevented you to love and imitate the steps of that One that came to the world to indicate you the path.

Christ returns to the world to cross with humanity the last Calvary of the Earth, and He will wait for His companions to carry with Him the cross that will not only open the doors to the Divine Mercy, but that will open the doors of a New Age, a new cycle, a new time, in which the cross will be transmuted by the power of love, and surrender will no longer mean sacrifice or suffering to the human heart, but it will be a natural act of love in the hearts of humankind.

Open yourself in spirit and in truth to embrace with Christ the last cross of the world. And may your love, united to His love, open the doors of the Universe and of all the Cosmos to the establishment of the Divine Will.

I bless you and I thank you to dispose your heart to this celestial mystery.

Your Father and Friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
