DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF FLORIANOPOLIS, SANTA CATARINA, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Children,

While the world experiences its first contractions in this planetary birth, I call upon you to contemplate with love that which will be born after all the effort that you will make as humanity during this birth, because this birth will be painful and will require constant effort, bravery and perseverance from all; however, only God knows the grace that comes after this painful planetary birth.

Today, and for some time, you will see a lot of suffering and despair in the hearts that did not find God. In your own heart, you will feel the sadness of the Creator for not triumphing in all His creatures but, in spite of everything, you must contemplate the purpose and the goal of your lives, the goal given to you by God the Father.

You will feel the fury of the enemy in each victory that you achieve, for each soul that awakens, at each step that you decide to take, for he knows that what seems very little to human eyes, for the Creator it means the manifestation of His Plan and the triumph of His Sacred Heart.

Today, I will tell you something that you must know: Children, God composed the human spirit with His most pure Essence, with His Love and with His Truth; however, the matter that your beings carry is also composed of dark parts that represent duality and the need for the redemption of your consciousnesses.

That impure part of matter is what many times encourages you to move against the Plans of God; it is what impedes you from being wholly before the Divine Purpose, and that will also be healed in this time. However, you will need to establish the foundations of your consciousnesses in that which makes you in likeness to God, which is the essence that you hold within yourselves, rather than in that which holds you to the world, which are the capital vibrations that compose your cells. For this, children, you must always seek peace of the heart through prayer, through gratitude and through unity with your fellow being.

Because We know that the battle you are experiencing and will experience is not only with the world, but with yourselves. We return every day to the Earth, and we encourage you to continue onward, dictating the steps that you must take.

Today I am here to strengthen you and, in the simplicity of My Heart, to give you the courage that you need for taking the steps the Creator expects from each one of you.

I know that the battles of this world are hard, because I Myself experienced them, and I continue to experience them for all of you. For this reason, children, I leave My encouragement within your hearts and My Light within your essences.

Do not give up and do not fear, because the greater the conflict and the harassment of the enemy, the greater is the Light of God within your lives.

I love you and renew you within My Heart.

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
