DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED ON THE BUS EAGLE OF LIGHT, DURING THE JOURNEY BETWEEN THE CITIES OF BLUMENAU, SANTA CATARINA STATE AND SÃO PAULO, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Live in the Kingdom of Peace of God permanently and learn to be united to the Father as the only way out to the imminent tribulation of the Earth.

Children,

Wars will still continue on the planet, inside and outside beings, in nations, in cities, in the families, in the inner world of consciousnesses. These wars are fruit of the submission that the adversary causes in great part of the planetary consciousness.

The adversary believes that his reign will expand even further throughout the Earth and that he will triumph with his darkness at the end of everything, since the creatures of God are so distracted. But, in truth, I tell you that the impulses to the awakening - even though they touch only a few, when they truly permeate souls and withdraw them from the dream they are living, leading them to place themselves correctly before the Plans of God - they have a planetary spiritual repercussion that balance ancient evils.

We repeat these things so that they are well imprinted in your consciousnesses, because, in spite of the chaos, the triumph of Good is a law and no matter how much hearts are apparently sinking in endless abysses, it will always be worth making efforts and sacrifices for the salvation of souls and spirits.

In these first times of the Armageddon, the planetary consciousness is being observed by God, and the merits of the Light are being placed on the scale with the actions of chaos, so that, by the result of this measure, the Creator may come to a fair decision over the destiny of each nation and over each of His creatures.

For this reason, you may feel many times that nothing happens on the level of the matter and that your efforts and prayers do not result positively in the evolution of the Earth; however, move forward without seeking any result.

Do not be tired of always surrendering yourselves a little bit more and of giving all of yourselves for those who give nothing. The actions of today will dictate the direction of tomorrow. The merits generated by the awakened beings of America may result in the salvation of the souls of the East, because God has no borders nor preferences; if humanity generates merits for salvation, He conducts His Graces to where they are most needed.

Trust in what I tell you and never cease to abandon yourselves everyday a little more, because this is the crucial moment to offer everything out of Love for the Plan of God.

When the Creator gives the ultimatum to the creatures of the Earth, there will be no longer a way to generate new merits, because the fate will be already sealed and there will be no other path than to experience the designs of Divine Justice.

All the merits generated by the awakening of beings at the end of times, in the time of Justice, will serve only to drive the fate of souls after this world, but not to change the fate of the planet, because it will have already been sealed.

Think about what I tell you and do not be distracted, because everyday the enemy feeds the scale with the weight of chaos and the Creator expects the correct balance to be generated by human actions and transformations.

The One who always warns and blesses you,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
