WEEKLY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Children, seek in this time the deepening of your own spiritual life. While the tension in the planetary life increases through the expansion of chaos inside and outside of humankind, you must be each day more secured to the Higher Purpose, each day more adhered to the Plan of God and less identified with the things of the world.

The kingdom of the matter is already in its decadence. As it was in earlier times, it has come the time to cross a threshold in the consciousness and find the Truth that you have always sought.

Many among you think to seek the Truth, but facing it, doubt, have concerns, awaken fears and do not take a step towards it, nor even to discover it and less to live it.

So many times we have already told you that reality is nothing similar to the things of this world, but the minds keep seeking compatibilities between the life of the spirit and the life in the matter. The time has come, children, of renovating yourselves and letting the things of this world go, in order to come know, still in life, the higher reality. Your souls clamor to God for the definitive awakening and your spirits ardently aspire to fulfill your mission.

Today I open you a door before the heart, which is the door of humility, because through this door you shall enter into the life of spirit. After it, I show you a second one, which is the door of sacrifice. After this one, I show you a third one, which is the door of surrender. And after this one, a fourth one, which is the door of absolute faith in God and in His Messengers.

Observe, in your lives, through which doors you have already passed and keep walking until every doubt will be dissipated and you can live, with the bases of humility and the principle of faith, a life guided by the Truth of God.

I tell you this because I wish that, in your lives, you took more concrete steps that can express what you have come to do in this world as a spiritual mission for your own redemption and for the triumph of the Plan of God. And so that it can be a reality, it is necessary to take a step in humility, in sacrifice, in surrender and in absolute faith. If you are willing to live these things, much will be able to be revealed to your own heart and you will not have fear or doubt of following this voice that calls you to walk.

Listen to My words not only as one more message, but truly with an inner need of leaving the point that you are spiritually and finally discover and live what you have come to do in this world, this mission which is purely spiritual and that in nothing resembles what you do today. It is not about a skill, but rather assuming your places in the manifestation of the Plan of God and expressing the spiritual virtue that you keep, latent, in your own inner world.

May the one who is willing to come out from where they are and live what I tell you enter through these doors, clamoring to the Father for the awakening and try, for themselves, this Instruction that

I bring you.

I leave you My Blessing so that you can walk.

Your Father and Friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
