

Monday, October 15 of 2018

DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE SACRED HOUSE OF MARY, MÃE PAULISTA, SÃO PAULO, BRAZIL, TO SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

When God spoke to the prophets, their eyes were lifted up high with a cry, because around them there was nothing but chaos and wars. God spoke to the prophets because, with clamor, they lifted their words up to the Father and awaited, from Him, the answer in order to find peace in their hearts.

God never stopped speaking with men; it is man, child, who no longer lifts up his eyes and heart to listen to the Father.

The prophets cried out for their people and awaited an answer from God. Now, little do beings cry out fervently to the Father and beings do not wait for His answer, but simply ask according to their own will and beg for it to be fulfilled.

The prophets knew how to receive the Grace and Justice from God and they knew that this Justice was true. Men of today expect Grace and repudiate Justice, because they want to love a God who fulfills their own will.

Learn, child, from the former prophets, who perpetuated their words and dialogues with God in the sacred books, not because of their holiness but because of their faith, because their respect and love for the Father was unconditional and this was what made their contact real.

Learn from the former prophets to understand, in these times, the corrections from God. He never stops being God and never stops being full in love. Choose, then, to be in God and in love and welcome His corrections when they come into your life so that you may be purified and become worthy of returning to the Father.

Your Father and Friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph