APPARITION OF SAINT JOSEPH IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDU, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS, FOR THE MEETING OF PRAYER OF DECEMBER 19

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Learn to pray for peace and to live in peace, because in this way, children, when agony and chaos are no longer just within beings, but also outside of them and in all directions, the peace-makers must emerge, the Kingdom must emerge within those who have allowed themselves to be a dwelling place for the Heart of God.

The world is now agonizing. How many times have I said to you the sentence "The world is agonizing?"

However, many still have their eyes closed to this agony. Many are still deaf to the cry of the Earth, to the clamor of the Kingdoms, to the request for help made by souls, by innocent children, by the sick, by the hungry, by the abandoned.

The world is agonizing, and many times your eyes are still turned toward yourselves. The world is agonizing, wars destroy the Earth. Who is willing to be peace on this planet?

War begins within beings, within the human condition in which all of you participate.

War begins when a heart decides to impose its own will.

War begins when a thought believes it is the only truth and beings decide to impose their own ideas upon others.

War begins when you do not know how to listen.

War begins when you do not know how to let yourselves be corrected.

War begins when you aspire to have something that does not belong to you, when you cannot rejoice with the triumph of your neighbor, with the victory of others.

War begins in the little competitions of daily life, when I try to vanquish my brother. That is where war begins.

War begins when I do not know how to obey.

Many think that war begins in the lack of love. Yes, children, war also speaks of lack of love, but it also begins in much smaller situations. Lack of love is the dry, infertile land in which the good does not grow.

You already know, you are aware that the human consciousness is one. Who has asked for forgiveness for the war they are causing on the other side of the world? Because war begins within all beings.

It is useless to pray for peace without being peace. Let prayer become life.

Do not do that which you know you should no longer do. Many want to know their own mission, but to do that which must be done, begin by not doing that which must not be done.

Begin by not saying that which must no longer be said. Begin by not feeding the thoughts that should no longer be thought. I do not ask you not to think, but rather not to allow the growth of the harmful seeds of those herbs that take up space in your hearts where those herbs that find the light should be.

How many treasures are kept in this sacred world! How many treasures are kept within beings!

Who is discovering this treasure within their own being?

I do not tell you that it is easy. On the contrary, it is easy to make war, it is easy to say: "No, I do not want that, I will not go, I will not try, I am not willing, I will not make the effort." This is easy.

But today, if you are here, your souls have been self-summoned, not to live that which is difficult, but to live that which is impossible. We will not offer you difficult challenges, but rather impossible challenges. Impossible for the human mind, which does not know its own potential. Impossible for the men and women of the world who are blind, even to that which they are.

Who are you? Where did you come from? Where will you go?

What is there beyond your eyes, beyond that which you can see, touch, feel?

What is there within your cells, within your spirit, beyond your consciousness, in the depths of your heart? Who can answer Me?

For this reason, the challenges of God are impossible, because the barriers are found in human ignorance. Ignorance, children, is a new great sin, because all has been given to you, wisdom is available, instruction is available, and it is urgent that it may expand.

Ignorance is the great veil that humanity itself sews day by day before itself so as not to find the Light. This veil that covers your eyes will not be torn by others. Your own hand must remove it.

How? By no longer doing that which must not be done, so that the paths may open to that which must really happen in your lives.

Love already exists in the depths of human consciousness. It already exists.

Love was given to you as an essence at the beginning of Creation. In the first manifestation of life, in the first particle of that which you know as consciousness, Love already manifested.

It already exists, it already dwells in you. Then why does it not grow?

Because you must release, break the currents of the human condition, of the oppression that the human being imposes on itself. You must open your hands, release that which binds you, ties you, blocks you. Release your own essence, which you are fastening through your incomprehension, your pains, the forgiveness not granted, the healing not lived, the Grace not accepted, the Mercy that you refused to receive due to pride, for not having enough humility to let yourselves be helped.

Love already exists, children. The human condition is perfect from the beginning. The great challenge of the human race is precisely this: to let this Love grow, to let perfection win, to let the impossible happen.

This is why I am here, as your Father and Friend, as the One who comes only to point out a way for you, and I speak as that One who was able to tread this path, in spite of His human condition.

I do not ask you for the impossible just to anguish you, but rather because I know the truth about each one of you. I can look at you and see what you are, where you came from and where you are going. This is why I ask you to open up to live the impossible.

May My Words resound within you. May My Grace awaken your consciousness. May the Mercy that comes from the Heart of Christ and pierces My Heart come today to your hearts and bring you peace.

Let those who cannot see Me just feel Me, feel the touch and paternal embrace that I come to bring you.

The world is and will be ever more in chaos. But there is hope for those who decide to be peace for the world, to be the Kingdom, Truth, Life, the Way, through example, as Christ was.

He did not teach you to live just so that you would look and contemplate His Life but so that you would live as He did. That by living this Truth, by treading this Way and participating in this Life, you, also you, might be a manifestation of the Truth, an arrow that points the way so that souls may reach true life.

What other mission do you want?

What other answer do you need?

Do you want to know what you must do, how you must be, what the next step will be?

Listen to Our Words. All has already been said.

Even so, the Father, in His Infinite Mercy, has asked Me to stay in the world, to not cease to guide souls, until your hearts are strengthened and the Kingdom emerges, until the hidden agony of Earth becomes visible to all eyes and, even so, your hearts are capable of balance, through the peace that dwells and radiates from within you.

I will be with you, in prayer for the world, in prayer for your souls, for the Kingdoms, for the planet. And I ask you, not only that I may be with you, but also that you may be with Me, as well.

Every 19th of each month, for another year, I will be here, as well as on Fridays, just as God has asked of Me.

I ask you to accompany Me in a prayer for peace and for the end of wars, praying a Devotional that I will transmit to you today.

Let us repeat together.

Devotional for Peace and the End of Wars

Union bead

So that peace may be established on Earth
and within beings,
Saint Joseph, intercede for the end of wars.

Amen,

First decade

For the Peace that springs from the Heart of God,
Saint Joseph, we cry out to You,
intercede for the children in wars.

Second decade

For the Peace that springs from the Immaculate Heart of Mary,
Saint Joseph, we cry out to You,
intercede for the abandoned women.

Third decade

For the Peace that springs from the Heart of Christ,
Saint Joseph, we cry out to You,
intercede for those who are sick amidst wars.

Fourth decade

For the Peace that springs from Your Chaste Heart,
Saint Joseph, we cry out to You,
intercede for those who try to flee from wars,
so that they may achieve peace.

Fifth decade

For the Peace that is born from the Holy Spirit of God,
Saint Joseph, we cry out to You,
intercede for all souls who live in wars,
so that peace may be established,
so that the human heart may be healed,
so that the Kingdom may be manifested,
so that wars may make room for the Love of God.

Final prayer

(three times)

Saint Joseph, we cry out to You,
in the name of all of humanity,
may the Kingdom of God be established,
may wars end within and outside of beings,
may peace reign within us and in this world.

Amen.

With this simple prayer, you will accompany My Chaste Heart every Friday, crying out so that peace may be established, so that wars may end within and outside of your beings, so that the men and women of this world may finally manifest who they really are.

Today, with the Child Jesus in My Arms, with His Little Hands turned to the Earth to bless all life, together with Him I bless you so that the purity of the Heart of Christ, of the Heart of the Child-God, may emerge again within all beings of this Earth.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Sister Lucía de Jesús:

Bring forward a water basin for the blessing.

May this water, blessed by the Child-God and sprinkled upon you, bring you purity. And with it, I will also wash the feet of two of My companions so that sadness may be dissipated from their hearts, and they may again come to know the Peace of the Kingdom of God.

The Love of Christ for souls is incalculable. This is why He calls each one of His by their names so that they may not lose peace.

With this, I bid farewell, and leave My Graces to you.

I bless you once again in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
