SPECIAL MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS FOR THE 64TH MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF FLORIANOPOLIS, SANTA CATARINA, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

Second Message

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

If souls believed that I am already here among you, the world would change.

If souls believed that I am already returning and that I come from the Universe with all the power of My Grace, the world would change.

For this reason, the trust of the hearts in My Presence will be fundamental to carry out the Work of Redemption.

Today I come for a world that is suffering and that, day by day, opens new wounds in the Kingdoms of Nature, in humanity and in the consciousness of the planet.

Humanity cannot see nor feel many of these wounds because they are internal. In this, the Hierarchy works untiringly so that chaos may not be reproduced nor be regenerated by the action of humankind.

I come for a Brazil that needs Me very much as well as it needs My Mother and Saint Joseph and, in spite of the ruling chaos, the internal and spiritual presence of Our Hearts allows to sustain the souls that have faith in Me.

Through the Sacraments that we will impart during these days, souls will be able to be spiritually renewed and healed; but there is a part that corresponds to each being, there is a part that the consciousness will have to assume for its transformation and redemption.

The Grace of God, through the Sacraments, comes to help you, as a spiritual basis, to generate and concede this transformation, so awaited by the Eternal Father, in each one of His children.

In the same way, through the Sacraments that we will impart these days, the legacy that I left to humanity will be renewed again.

For this reason, not only souls will benefit from them but also My Celestial Church will descend to the Earth in order to unite the souls with God, in essence and in spirit.

The Sacraments that I can impart to the souls that request them are means to reach My Celestial Church, they are paths to reach the Center of My Being, the Temple of My Spirit; of this Divine Spirit, Pure and Immaculate, created by God, that descended to the Earth in order to bring to the world an opportunity of love, an opportunity of light and an opportunity of hope.

Although My Church on Earth is very lowered, I revive the spiritual legacy once delivered to the Apostles, through the New Christs, through the last apostles of the last days that I am calling to serve Me.

Because My gaze is not placed on miseries, on imperfections or in faults.

My gaze is placed on the transparency that each serving heart can give Me.

It is this transparency that you can give Me and this trust that you can deliver to Me that will make the Work of Mercy and of Redemption happen in Brazil and in humanity.

There is no more place on Earth that is free from evil or from sin; you know this, because you can see it.

Only in certain sacred spaces, where the Spiritual Hierarchy concentrates in its profound silence and contemplation, will you find the doors to cross towards the consciousness of the Great Universe and commune with the Supreme Fountain.

In these spaces of South America there are sacred precincts in which humanity, silently and in prayer, can find itself again, in its essence, in its origin, in its state of light and of transcendence.

But while these sacred spaces, which are not visible to physical eyes, are not protected and respected, this Fountain will close.

All souls in the world need this spiritual nourishment, although they do not know these sacred places.

But you, who are conscious of this reality, foster, through Mercy, this approximation of souls to this state of consciousness which is something internal and sublime, it is where they will be able to be in communion with the Hierarchy and find again this path that humanity has lost toward Truth.

For this reason, My Merciful Heart does not cease to pour out graces, goodness and light, although It is in silence and in reflection, just as the Eternal Father is at the moment.

The Universe contemplates this moment in which God withdraws from Creation.

A new time comes, a new revelation will be manifested.

All the Universes are concentrated on this state which God has entered a few days ago.

You, through prayer and mercy, must be part of that movement so that you can perceive what the Universe will make descend in the next cycle, when the Hierarchies of Light are in more silence, in a deeper and more internal silence.

As you know, companions, I will not carry out My Work of redemption with multitudes but with few disciples, as it was in the past.

If only eleven consciousnesses, in spite of their imperfections, managed to carry out My Plan and testify My Presence as Son of God in the world and in the four corners of the Earth, what could more than eleven consciousnesses do in this final time?

All spiritual life is congregating and uniting.

All the force from the Immaterial and Divine Universe is uniting to impel in spirits the concretion of the Plan so that at least a part of the Earth may become rescuable and may turn into an Island of Salvation.

On this afternoon, I could say many more things for your hearts, but I know that the human being still needs some time to understand the Hierarchy.

Know that Our trust, as Celestial Brotherhood, is placed in everything we do because Our Mission, in the name of the Heavenly Father, goes beyond the forms and humanity, it embraces an infinity of universal consciousnesses and spaces, because there is a Project to be fulfilled and to be manifested.

I hope that, with the consciousness and discernment of Brazil, which could someday awaken, this land may be part of the Eden of God again and, thus, the New Race may be able to express as God has wanted so much.

I invite you to live this Marathon as a step for your consciousnesses, without leaving behind any Word of the Hierarchy, knowing that everything we say has an objective, a principle and a mission, knowing that it is time to understand the Creation as God needs and not as men believe.

If humanity began to respect the Laws of Creation, many situations would not happen.

The transgressions and faults are very great before the Law of Divine Justice, but I come to place My Heart as intercessor and not as a judge, as mediator and as advocate of all souls that in truth want to repent and transform.

Because the most beautiful thing that could happen to your lives is to live in God, is to feel God and is to commune with God all the time.

May My Passion, once lived on the Cross, in Calvary, in each moment that your Master and Lord suffered, be revived as a means for the salvation and the redemption of humanity.

We have come to the south of Brazil because Brazil needs it very much. It is the country, it is the nation, it is the people that will have to keep its heart open so that it may always know how to hear God.

I bless you and invite you to the reconsecration of your homeland, on the 5th and 6th, to My Sacred Heart, during six months.

If this consecration is true, in response and adhesion, you will give Me the authority to intercede in very serious situations of your people.

I love you and bless you with the Light of My Spirit, in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
