Novena to the Sacred Thorned Heart of Jesus

Fourth Day

Today, remove from My Heart, the painful thorn of indifference that many of My followers left for Me, those who used to be with Me and who still think they are.

In truth, the indifference of these hearts has completely blinded them, to the point of challenging My Work and putting it to the test.

I had to carry the thorn of indifference of My old companions so that the Wrath of God would not knock at the door of each one of them.

For this reason, through your simple prayer, remove this uncomfortable and painful thorn from Me, of those who thought to win, but who have already spiritually failed.

My Silence reveals the deepest core of My Heart, because in this time I have decided to tell you the whole truth, however hard it may seem.

I have the duty of preparing for My second return in your hearts and I will need true hearts, rather than perfect hearts, because you will only find perfection in God.

When hearts are not true, they lie and are indifferent, and from that point on, these souls miss the opportunity of loving.

Also offer the Celestial Father your failures, your weaknesses, and your bitterness. Believe that, through the thorn of My Heart and by the offering of the Beloved Son, I will be able to again renew everything.

Have faith, My child, and with devotion and love, remove from My Heart the painful thorn of indifference; thus, you will help your Master so that the unending wellspring of Mercy may still remain open, healing and converting the hardened hearts.

Avoid any indifferent act, and seek to perceive where the indifference is, because it is as cunning as the serpent; it hides and emerges when least expected.

Overcome indifference by means of an unconditional service to others, thus, together with Me, you will also overcome, in the name of love.

I thank you for keeping My Words in your heart!

Who blesses you,

Your Master, Christ Jesus
