APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, DURING THE FIRST DAY OF THE 111th MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY

A day will come when the world will no longer know what pain, anguish or depression is. That day is near, it is within the Heart of the King, and this I share with you today because it is a promise by which souls can rediscover the Kingdom of God and thus, once and for all, be part of the Primordial Source.

Today, I am here, listening to the supplications of those who are Mine, feeling the love of My companions, receiving the reparation of My Heart for all that humanity does still today, moving away from love and truth.

Therefore, I come with that promise that the day will finally come and hearts will rejoice when they are seated by My side, before the nature of this world, before the beauty of Creation, the sound of the oceans, the sunrise and sunset.

Those I have called to serve Me will be with Me again; they will be as the apostles were, face to face, heart to heart, listening to the Word of their Lord.

And, at that hour, I will tell you about the New Earth, and that promise will no longer be distant, but you will see The New Earth blossom through the souls that will have fulfilled My Will.

And the Great Book of the Lords of the Law will be open and that which was written will no longer be. Everything will begin anew, bearing in mind the lessons learned, having enriched their hearts after having received so many Sacraments and Graces, after having witnessed this moment, as well as so many others which you have lived with Me throughout time.

At that hour, no child will be heard crying upon Earth. The cries of the men and women of this world will be of joy, for the great promise of My Return will be fulfilled through the faith of those who have walked by My side without anything in return.

At that hour, God will be present, contemplating this universal event, and the signs of Heaven, which were previously hidden, will be unveiled.

At that hour, the mystery will no longer be necessary for the peacemakers, for the mystery will reveal itself.

And many, at that hour, will know the Son of God not only as the Humble Man of Nazareth, but also as the Redeemer of the World. And through My Hands, My Feet and My Side, I will show you the luminous signs of My Resurrection, those Signs that are still kept deep within My Being and My Consciousness.

And from that moment on, between the past and the future, between the real and the unreal, the history of this humanity will be rewritten, now purified of its errors and faults, because all who have recognized the Name of the Lord will be blessed. Just like at this moment, My companions, through this moment, you have the opportunity and the Grace to be the blessed of the Father, those who are not afraid to say yes.

Therefore, I ask that before this great promise arrives, you continue to be patiently transformed, continue to purify yourselves evolutionarily, continue to transcend positively, without giving place to bitterness and sadness.

I know that many of My children in the world do not understand why there is so much suffering, but God did not create you to suffer, God created you to love and recognize Him, to be in His first Project, His Blessed Sons and Daughters of the Earth, those consciousnesses worthy of Eden.

But that moment, which has remained inconclusive and uncertain, must be taken up again. After the error and failure of Adam and Eve, from that moment up to the present, everything must be repaired.

Therefore, the great promise is important for the end of times, the great promise of the reunion with your King and Lord.

I hope for this every day. Will you be able to wait for that moment too ?

I do not need your answer now. May your response be your example of Christification, perseverance, faith, love and reverence for the sacred.

Today, I have heard this song that I was offered, as if it were the first time. And this is very significant for Me, because your Master's Heart can collect the experiences of love and forgiveness of His companions, true experiences of redemption and light through those who, with effort, are encouraged to love a little more every day.

The Name of God has been praised today. Blessed be this in Heaven and on Earth, in the mountains, in the seas and in all nature. Blessed be He, within and outside of beings. Blessed be those who trust in the Lord and do not let themselves be intimidated, but with courage and bravery hold My Torch of Light in this world so that, day by day, the darkness will be dispelled from humanity and from the hearts that have condemned themselves.

For this reason, this is very important to Me, and I share with you this great promise, which you must believe in, before you see it, which you must feel, before it may be concretized, practicing the sacred exercise of love for the unknown, for all that is beyond yourselves.

Thus, companions, these are My Words today, the deepest Words of My Heart to those who are Mine, Words that reveal and concretize the Will of God in the consciousnesses who accept to live My Call and through the sublime Grace of the Sacraments, those whom I will accompany with care today, so that not only may this country be more helped, but, through those who will be sacramentalized, may more souls be helped in this world, souls who desperately need light and redemption.

This must be the aim of your lives: to work with Me for the redemption of the world. This should be your promise before God, whatever it takes, for thus I will be within My new apostles, in those who give themselves to serve Me unconditionally.

May My Words, on this day, not dissolve into the ethers of the Earth.

May My Words, like a sacred melody, continue vibrating in sidereal space, so that souls realize and perceive that, through the Divine Word, God pours out His Graces and Affirmations in the hearts that are open to receive Him.

I want your lives to be the true sign of conversion, of the walkers and the tireless apostles, of those who faithfully follow the Divine Purpose, learning how to overcome, each day, a little more.

This whole path of sacred transformation, though it may not seem so, will help this nation to be the cradle of the New Humanity.

You are in time to fulfill this promise, just as I will fulfill the promise I bring you today.

May the Light of the Sacraments be kindled.

May the souls enter into My Heavenly Church and may the name of Jesus be praised again, together with the angels of Christ, so that the evil in this world may be placated and the hearts, in captivity and slavery, may reach the same liberation that you have reached. For if you are here today, before Me, have you realized that you have already been set free?

Now is the time to walk and to build the Sacred Work of My Mercy in all places throughout the world where it may be possible.

I want to ask you for something else: that you accompany Me wholeheartedly in the sacred task that your Master and Lord will carry out in the Middle East.

I ask you, from now on, to pray for this, so that the merits of My Sorrowful Passion may be rekindled in the Holy Land and, beyond it, during the Sacred Week, may they reach the whole world in order to avoid a greater gravity in the war between Ukraine and Russia. I hope you have understood Me.

And now, before entering the Holy Eucharist, in the infinite Graces of the Sacraments, you will sing to your Master and Lord another song: "You are the King".

Let us celebrate, thank and revere this moment, under the Power and Grace of God.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

The Lord says he will listen to each heart sing to him.
