

Apparition of Christ Jesus during the 52nd Marathon of the Divine Mercy, on November 6th, 2017, in the city of Valparaíso, Chile, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón

I would like, as soon as possible, to have the Medallion of the Sacred and Glorified Heart of Jesus coined. I want every soul on this Earth to have it with them, and come to know the promises that I once made about this sacred symbol of Redemption.

I wish to have it present at the foot of my altar for the next Marathon. I want to give this present, this very important symbol of My return, to each one of My pilgrims.

That will be the symbol, it will be the sign, through the Medallion, that the angels will have in order to recognize you and call on you to My encounter, when I return to the world.

That is why today, on the palm of My right Hand, I bring the Sacred Medallion of the Glorified Christ; so that in this way, you may acquire a greater devotion to My Sacred Heart and, as is this Marathon, which has been splendid for Me, I may deliver in other places of the world, as today in Chile, the treasures of Heaven through the sacred objects, which will help souls to be spiritually free and to be able to free themselves from their illnesses, their sufferings, and from all captivity.

For the next few days, I would like you to remember the message about this Sacred Medallion, which once I gave at My beloved Aurora.

It is time to bring to Earth what comes from Heaven, and that in essence, through the Sacred Medallion, the promises that My Sacred Heart has emitted may be fulfilled

I would like that through the Medallion, everyone would know My Face of return; even though My return will be more resplendent than what has been painted in the sacred picture of your King. It is important that souls know My Face and all the promises that I have made, for each one of them.

Today I come to close this Pilgrimage for Peace in Chile, bringing this Grace that everyone may be able to have with them, as soon as possible, the symbol of the Sacred and Glorified Heart of Jesus, because in that way, companions, My Father will allow Me to pour out many more Graces, many more mercies, into the hearts that are in need of spiritual freedom and of healing.

This Grace that I bring today in My Hands, through the Sacred Medallion, will still be an unknown mystery to the world, because I have only spoken five percent of the power this symbol will acquire when it is coined and blessed by Me Myself. Souls will be able to have this Medallion with them and carry it to the places most in need, such as hospitals, old peoples' homes, youth institutes, and even to jails.

My desire is that, through this Medallion, all souls that know it achieve spiritual freedom and are able to enter the Great Portal that I will open through it, to Redemption.

I am honored to come today to a country so wounded during the past, to deliver this celestial legacy; this sacred symbol, which holds within itself the maximum Love of My Heart for the souls of the world.

That is why I come with this Medallion, to remind you of that request. It is time for souls to also physically feel My Presence, so that in the time that will come they may recognize Me and not be confused with other masters, but rather find their only King, Who ascended to the Heavens and Who will descend from the Heavens to find them, at the most difficult time for humanity.

This Medallion will be the sign of the self-called, of those who will accept the commitment to Me at the end of time, of those who will not take steps back, but rather will walk steadily to My encounter, to form the ranks of My armies on this planet and within this Universe.

That is why these are times of great definitions. And the sacred objects, such as the Medallion of My Glorified Heart, will give you the strength you need to pass through tests, to dissolve conflicts, invoking the power of My Glorified Heart, which is revealing Itself to the world in this time; a Heart that enters this New Era to bring the Peace and the Mercy of God.

And so, in acquiring this Sacred Medallion of My Glorified Heart, I will also be able to recognize your beings; I will be able to know that you are with Me, even on this material plane, step by step.

Today I come with this Grace, companions, specially for Chile. So this country may rejoice and know that through this Medallion you will have found your freedom and forgiveness for all your errors. Know that, in these two days, companions, I have counted the times you have opened your lips and have pronounced for the sake of My sorrowful Passion to the Celestial Father. I hope that, leaving here, you remember how to do it and never again forget it, because you will need it.

When the spiritual impulses of Our Sacred Hearts pass through the nations of the world and through the peoples, the souls must learn to sustain that divine Fire, which comes from the Universe of God, so that it may not dissipate when We leave here.

My Mother sowed in you, here in Chile, new crystals of light, and in these days I have gathered up your most sincere offerings. I hope that you keep this important Communion that you have had with Me these two days. That you keep the words of Love that I have pronounced to you, no matter how harsh they may have seemed, because what My ardent Heart desires, companions, is that you live the Truth.

From Heaven I bring this Medallion, today not visible to many eyes, but perceptible to many hearts.

Today, with My Light and with My Love, I will magnetize all the Medallions that will be coined in the coming times, so each sun of this planet, who will awaken in its essence of love, of devotion, and of Faith to My Sacred Heart, may receive the Graces they need, to walk in faith during these times of tribulation. In it I have magnetized the power of three Archangels: Michael, Gabriel, Metatron.

Those were the Rays that penetrated My Heart, which was pierced on the Cross when I expired. And before dying I said: Father, My Father, Adonai, forgive them for they do not know what they are doing and because they will not know what they will do, until I return to the world.

This is the Grace that I place today on the Medallion that will be coined: the Power of the Archangel Michael, so that the forces of chaos be exorcised and dissipated, be transmuted and liberated, and the hearts of this world dissociate from all evil; so that the Power of the Heavens may reign.

This coined Medallion will also receive the Power of the Archangel Gabriel, so that the souls and the inner parts of humanity may recognize the message of God, the Word of Life and the divine Flame of salvation.

The Medallion that will be coined will also receive the Fire of the Archangel Metatron, so that all superfluous energies may be sublimated, transcended, and elevated; so that atavistic tendencies, ties, and chains may be dissolved from the human consciousness, and anyone who holds this Medallion with faith receive that Grace.

These were the Powers received when My Heart was pierced by the spear on the cross and it was the legacy the world received on the inner planes and that now in this Era and in this cycle, I come to awaken in your hearts and souls.

You will not have a medallion like any other. You will not have an amulet, but rather a spiritual part of My Being, which is non-material and divine. You will have in your hands the essence of the greatest Love that I have lived, moments before expiring on the cross, moments before My Heart stopped and ceased beating for Love of the world, until I could rise up in Glory on the third day.

In that Medallion of My Glorified and Sacred Heart you will have in essence the story of love that was recorded by the holy women of Jerusalem, by the apostles, by the patriarchs, and by the Holy Mother of God, who accompanied Her Son until the end in Her most absolute silence and in Her most infinite surrender.

This will be the Medallion of the blessed, of the New Christs, of those who will not be afraid to say 'yes' to My Prophecies and announcements, which I bring from Heaven, because it will help you protect your essences and bring you closer to My Heart when you need it, at any moment of your lives.

In this Sacred Medallion that will be coined and which comes from My Sacred Heart, will be written the spiritual history of the events and experiences lived by your Master in this world. From His birth to His ascension, the Medallion will have the essence of My story experienced on this planet; as well as all the sacrifices of those who were martyrs, of those who were saints and servants of God up to this day.

It will hold the love that each heart has entrusted to Me, from the time of the Garden of Gethsemane up to the present, of all the missionaries who have served Me in the world through the Gospel and through Charity; like the love I recorded in the heart of Saint Teresa of Jesus, as well as in that of Saint John Paul II and even of Pope Francis himself.

Look how many mercies will be coined, so that souls may carry them over their hearts and never be separated from them again, because I have had to fight to get here, to this nation, for your consideration, your grace, and your response.

The Lord has granted the world this Grace. May no one miss the opportunity of receiving this legacy. May no one miss the opportunity of learning to love, just as I have taught you. Because what I most wish is that you be compassionate until the end of the times; that you to be merciful and just with your brothers and sisters.

I know that My Work is not yet fully understood, not even by those to whom I speak. The Mystery of the Universe will still be kept in the Heart of God. But there will come a day in which the doors will open and nothing more will be kept hidden. Everyone will know what God has always wanted you to know and the global ignorance will be dissipated from human minds. Many will prostrate themselves on the ground when they feel the ground and the Universe tremble at the arrival of the Son of God, and they will repent for not having listened in time.

I invite you to work for those hearts that will not accept you, that will deny you, that will turn their faces from you. But if you do all in My Name, you will have the inner strength to love, just as I have loved every soul that tortured Me, that flagellated Me, even the one that crucified Me.

How is a human being capable of loving the evil that another could do to him?

What is the essence of that mystery, of giving one's life for those who do not deserve it?

But I know you are not ready for that. But some will live it, because I will ask it of them, face to face. And when all that has taken place, when you have truly suffered for Me, and without complaints, then I will come for you before you expire, to take you to Paradise, and to live eternally in adoration of God, as the angels live, for ever and ever.

In My Kingdom you will not find suffering for those who will no longer be here, in this world, when everything is over, and you will find the result of the joy of having been with Me every day, unconditionally.

For this reason, everything you do is small for Me and in My Spirit has an incalculable value that only God knows.

May this Medallion hold the Sacred Gifts of God, the same Gifts of the Holy Spirit that Mary, your Mother, received along with the apostles in the Cenacle. It is these Gifts that My Heart brings today, through this Medallion, so that the apostles of the new time may awaken to My call and always say "yes" to Me.

For everything that I have lived on Mount Calvary and until the moment of My Death, pouring out Blood and Water from My Side, today from Heaven I bring the synthesis of the love of all those who loved Me throughout times, of all those who suffered for Me throughout times, of all those who witnessed My Presence in the world, in all decades, never ceasing to say 'yes' to Me each moment.

Is this that My Merciful Heart gives you today, because My wish is that the same love that your brothers and sisters lived may come from you and may also be recorded in that Sacred Medallion for those who will need it in the future, even if you are still here on Earth, serving Me and announcing My Word in humanity.

Today I come to bless the water that will wash your heads, under the outpouring of the Holy Spirit and the Most Blessed Son.

Today, I come to bless the oil that will mark your faces with the presence of the healing from My Heart for your physical and spiritual illnesses.

Today I come, in this last instance of the mission, to reintegrate the trust of God in Chile, to begin again, under a renewed faith, under a great love that I found hidden here, in your hearts, in these two days.

May that flame continue re-emerging; may that inner fire continue to grow, in order that your Master and Lord may return here, finding multitudes of beings redeemed by the love of the heart.

May this Grace be extended to this nation, from the north of Chile to the south of Punta Arenas, and beyond it, to the Antarctic.

I place My blessing Hands on this people, so that My Peace may be established.

And now I will ask the guardian angels to bless these elements, which will be a source of Graces for those who have asked for it from the heart.

May this incense be blessed, in the same way as the incense that received Me in the temple when I was a Child in the arms of Mary, of My Mother, and of Saint Joseph, to be given to God, for the fulfillment of the divine mission that My Father entrusted to Me at that time.

May this incense purify that which is innermost and may it uplift the spirits that have fallen on the face of the Earth. Amen.

And now, companions, as I ascend to Heaven, reminding you the importance of that Medallion for the entire world, I invite you to unite even more with My Heart, to radiate to the planet It's Consciousness of Light, as well as to your humankind, which is sick in spirit, mind, and body. And so that these Sacraments that you will live today, especially in Chile, not only renew your people, but also all those who will come knocking at the door, seeking the path of reunion with Love, with the Love of God, just as you have found It in these days.

Never forget this. Never erase these moments from your memory, because for the times that will come, they will help you to cross the abysses and go through the tests, the deserts and the great voids that the world will face, in order to be confirmed before God and be worthy of a new opportunity, just as you have it today before My Most Holy Presence, to radiate to this world, to this humanity, as well as to the Kingdoms of Nature.

We will end this intimate encounter between your hearts and Mine, asking God for His Blessings and Graces through the song 'Rain of Love'.

May this permeate the planet and your hearts, as well as all the lives that are in need of redemption.

I bless you from My Sacred and Glorified Heart, in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

I thank you.
