???????Apparition of the Glorified Christ Jesus during the Sacred Call, in the Marian Center of Aurora, Paysandu, Uruguay, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

When we were halfway through the prayer work of the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, I began to see a desert-like place, a place that was unknown to me. At the end of the prayer and while we were singing "Christ, You are Love", I saw the Master walking in this place. He said it was the Middle East, specifically Syria, where He was spiritually gathering those brothers and sisters who had died trying to cross the desert, looking for a way out, an alternative. I also saw Him in the ships of the refugees, rescuing the soul of each of these consciousnesses.

During the whole time that He was here transmitting His monthly message, He continued to carry out this task in that place. It was an invisible and profound task, with each person that was there needing help.

He showed that the demand was very great, and that His Consciousness was able to encompass up to a certain number. At that moment, we asked Him why, and He responded that it was what the Father allowed, what the Law of the Universe permitted, since with what is happening in the Middle East, the conflict and the refugees, there is a great imbalance in the Laws, and He respects the Law. But nevertheless, the Master helped those consciousnesses.

At another moment, we saw Him with many children in His Arms. He showed the faces of many children in need, many of them undernourished and almost dead.

When He appeared here in Aurora, He showed Himself dressed as an Arab, the clothing covered all His Body, and only His Face could be seen, drawing attention to the brilliance of His Eyes, of a deep sky blue. While He transmitted the Message, in His left hand He held His Heart. It was a human Heart that beat, that was alive, and through which circulated vital, living and luminous Blood. He was stretching out His Hand to us and offered His Heart, to us and to all of humanity.

Look at Me and I will be with you.

Seek Me and you will find Me.

Do not turn away from Me and stay by My side.

I still offer you My Heart as salvation and rescue.

I still offer My Heart for you, especially for those that do not want Me nor live Me.

Today I have come from the universe not only to give you My Peace and dissolve all evils. Today I came in the name of My Father, to please Him and bring relief to His wounded Heart.

Today I came from a special place that is unknown to many, because you have only been there through prayer, through your souls and your sincere offerings to My Heart.

Today I come from far lands where hearts suffer and many despair because they cannot find peace and because of living in fear of death all the time.

Today I come with the vestments of a great Arab Master that travels through the deserts because in all places He hears voices crying out for help and pity.

Today, in My Arms I have held those who have died, those who are shipwrecked, those who are lost in the seas from so much indignity.

And today they are here in My Lap, in this warm manger that is being prepared to again incarnate the Son of God, in the face of a great time of tribulation and of darkness. But who has shed a tear for those they do not know and that suffer?

Today I come to remove you from your comfortable spaces, so that you may see beyond yourselves the true need of the Plan. It is for this reason that My Father, through My prayers, heard the supplications of His Son, so that consciousnesses in offering and service could carry My Peace, the Peace that I have given you here for such a long time.

Today I do not come to demand anything from you, but rather to ask you to finally decide to be what you still do not want to be, to be My instruments, My lamps that light up a world that is in the dark.

Today I have come to show you where the need is. While I walk through the desert of faraway Syria, I listen to the crying of the innocent. But to transcend the sorrow that I feel on seeing so much cruelty and indifference, in the face of so much lack of love and of pity, I offer My Heart as a refuge.

Today I am planting My last ray of light in the world, so that those that were imprisoned by their own brothers and sisters may find the way out to redemption, that they may see My Light on the horizon shining like the Aurora to bring a rescue to those who truly deserve it.

Companions, in light of what is happening in the world, you can perceive the smallness of your difficulties. If you turn away to not speak with a brother or sister, what would you do if you were facing a rifle about to kill you? Would you give up your life for Me to testify to the world that I was among you and resurrected from among the dead to give you eternal life?

There is no time to waste on superficial things. You must not give yourselves permission to become lost in such insignificant things that have no value or essence in the Eyes of God.

I come to awaken your consciousness, which is still asleep in you, because it is now time for it to awaken to the call of the Plan. Look around you and understand what is happening, and thus, continue to firmly walk to console those that call and cry out for My Mercy even though they do not know Me. That is why I am in the desert and also on the seas, stretching out My Hand to those that are shipwrecked all the time and have no land or place to live.

O companions! How insignificant are your things that have not seen hundreds of children crying from hunger, for bread or for water.

The times seen by John are taking place and nobody will be able to escape. The hour of evil has come and it is not enough, companions, that you hide in your amenities or in your ideals to justify to My Father that this is not real.

Thus, I offer you My Heart as a living and resplendent flame, for your Master that is in Heaven, and that is now in Syria, prepares the important mission of carrying peace from one heart to another. Of carrying love from one spirit to another. It will be in that hour that I will confirm if in truth you have understood My Law of loving one another in spite of your errors and your faults.

While souls know the first steps of their purification, let nobody fear, for who seeks My Heart will not be lost nor will be empty of feeling or of word.

I come seeking that which you still have not given Me, I come to banish what still does not want to die and that has increasingly deeper roots in the consciousness. I have no need of your dry and hard roots. I come to transplant you so that you may be a new being, a new consciousness, in which My Light may act in the most difficult moments.

I know that you all fail Me again and again, but My gaze is on your talents that are a refuge for My Gifts, which I place in each human heart. That is why I have come to assemble you all for this new mission in the Middle East. You will bring reality to many, that will help many to experience My Message and make it part of their being.

Recently humanity is crossing its first darkest part, but the worst has not begun. It is at that hour that I will return to reveal to the world the time of its judgment before My Lord, before the angels of Heaven. There is where the Earth will enter a new state, a new beginning, and those who have rejected My name will no longer be present, because the Earth will be repopulated by those that I have called to live My path. I need this mission to be carried out because the most acute hour is drawing closer.

May this Christmas be the Christmas of the renewal of consciousness and not of childishness, naivety, or indifference. You are already prepared to give the fruits that My Heart needs rather than being bad fruit in clean baskets with fresh fruit. Do not destroy what I am building.

I know that many will not believe what I am saying, for truly humble is the one that listens and is silent so as to recognize reality. I do not need your barriers, I do not want your obstacles, I need companions with a pure heart where God and His Work lives throughout time. Do not let your hearts become as hard as stone, be free of yourselves once and for all. Always seek a filiation with Me and with My Father Who is in Heaven.

I do not want you to deceive yourselves. I come to bring you My Light and the testimony of My Truth. I come to give you what you do not deserve, although I know you have offered yourselves for Me many times. Friends, I need your unity, where My adversary cannot enter. If in the basket there is a rotten fruit, the rest will be lost and that will not be because of lack of My care, but rather because of your actions, for you do not care about the great need of this planet.

I give you My Love that is the Love of the Living God, the Love of the Eternal and Omnipresent God; it is that Love that through the centuries takes care of fragile souls. The same as a plant dies because it cannot manage to survive, I give you of that water, but you do not drink it. I give you a little of My Love that transforms you, but you become closed. I give you My Word and you do not want to hear it. If I gave all these things to My children of the Middle East, the war would end and the thrones that have been built would fall down to the right and to the left of God, because the Father Who is in Heaven is the One Who has the Power and not you or any being of the Earth.

I incarnated in this world so that you could learn to love and to live through My Heart. I am always here, but you do not seek Me. I always wait to give you My embrace and My consolation.

Everything that must die will experience its suffering, but do not fear; love overcomes all barriers.

Be My witnesses in this time and walk at My side so as to always see peace. Remember that My Love is invincible and penetrates all things.

Surrender your powers at My Feet and I will resurrect you. It is time for humility.
