APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS, IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDU, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN, DURING THE 24TH MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY

On this afternoon, My purpose is to seek the triumph of your heart, so that the Purpose of God may be accomplished in your lives and on the planet.

For this reason, I have been consequent with you up to the end times and I come to seek that which you can truly give Me, all of what can be gifted to the universe with love and humility.

But today, I leave to all an open path. From the beginning, My Father gave you the freedom to choose and this is respected by all of Creation.

My Heart seeks to transform hearts, to awaken new apostles to the path of the end of times.

But of all this immensity of souls that exist on the Earth, only a small number will reach the goal. But for this to happen, companions, many other souls must help. In this way, My Plan is slowly accomplished in all hearts and to each one I gradually give what they truly need.

To many of you, I gave many things that you did not deserve, for the ocean of My infinite Mercy allowed this. And today I stand before you as the Sacred Heart of Jesus, so that you may remember that in My Heart is the true Universal Monstrance, the great lamp for this world, which lights up the darkness and the shadows, and rescues hearts that have fallen.

This is why I need disciples and beginners, so that My Purpose, the Purpose of Adonai, can be accomplished. And these disciples of Mine, whom I summon, must go through many tests and experiences until they achieve the true spirit of transcendence.

But I know that for many of you it is hard to live this spirit, it is something that humanity does not know, or truly lives. Through the experience of faith, I come to ignite that spirit, so that your lives may be the example and the school for other souls. There are many flocks, in this cycle, that are lost and others that no longer want to listen to Me; and others do not want to enter the Tabernacle of My Heart.

And what will I be able to do in light of these things? Have you asked yourselves this?

But I do not come to bring you severity, but rather the Love that transforms all things, that is the great fire of this universe that achieved Resurrection in the Son of God, through the Passion and the Death of the Cross.

God gave you a cross to carry; measuring the degree of your debts, this cross is heavier or lighter. But I teach you how to carry it. Many times I positioned Myself close to you to help you. And although you may not have perceived it, companions, My Mercy lifted you from the ground again and again, to walk by means of the strength of the heart toward the Purpose. You cannot lose that vision, of seeing the Creator Plan in every consciousness.

Thus, I come here again, to this Sacred Center, to remind you that you can walk freely and have experiences in this humanity, although it is not My Purpose. I show you the inner path, and the difficulties to be transcended are found on your inner paths.

Yesterday I came with the Father and the Holy Spirit. Today I come with the Monstrance of My Heart, so that you know where to look in times of tribulation.

But humanity does not believe that the world will be purified. There is no other way to go. To enter into My Kingdom, you must be clean and pure, and no small stain should remain on your souls in order to enter the Kingdom of God.

This is why I come to destroy your arrogance, so that love and truth may reign. And this love and this truth, which you still do not know deeply, are the spirit that will allow you to experience fraternity and brotherhood, and to step out of this superficial world that becomes involved in terrestrial matters.

I bring you the Spirit of another dimension, the spiritual and divine dimension. These sacred lights participate in your lives. Precious codes are poured out again and again upon humanity in the sacred hope that somebody will awaken to the essence of love, the love that will heal you and free you from yourselves.

I gave you the Sacraments so that you could live Me. The Sacraments go beyond a material act or beyond a spiritual plane. One of My Faces descends to transform you through the Sacraments: the Face of My Glorification that makes it possible to transform your putrefied things so that, expelling the evil from your hearts, the Source of Divine Purity may be born, which is what I bring you through My Priestly Presence.

Many times I gave you to drink from this Source in spite of your sins and debts, for I need a part of this humanity to be consecrated to God; that it may be freed from itself and from any idea, any personal purpose that tries to deviate My projects.

For who is with Me, is with Me. But who changes My plans is against Me, against the Law. And the Law is just and wise for any heart of the Earth or star of this universe. We are all are governed by the same Law and nobody escapes it, for if you are now experiencing what you are experiencing, it is within the Law of Adonai, of His Divine Thought and the essence of His Love, His Spiritual Love.

Learn and grown. Do not resist any longer. A greater universe awaits you so that you may find peace and be freed from arrogance, for My paths are crystalline and My footprints mark the steps of humility. You are all invited to follow in My footsteps. I accept all offers, in the degrees of love you can express to Me.

But for some, I have firm and determining decisions, which are part of the Will of Adonai. And when this does not happen, companions, it is as if you were despising My merciful Love, as many despise My Presence in this world because of not knowing true Love, which comes from the universe.

Your project is a project of love, it is not a personal project for anybody. In this human project of God, there is a beginning and an end and the end was deviated by the action of humanity, from the Genesis and throughout the times.

I came to the world to correct that error. I gave you My Word, I gifted you with My Love and I gave you My life, pouring out My Blood and My Water for all of you. Was it worth it? Have you asked yourselves this?

See how important this event in the past was, companions, which has allowed the Spirit of My Divinity to visit you in these times so you may awaken to an awareness of the Love of God.

To enter My ship, there is only one way to row. There are no two ways to row. But some of you have shown Me thus.

I invite you to follow Me in trust. I will carry you to a good port. And although now and in these times many will not be able to follow Me, as was foreseen, I will never cease to love you.

My understanding surpasses all these tests and reveres wounded hearts, filling with peace those who cry from seeing the ills of the world. I will comfort you. The suffering is part of purification. There are many who are not willing to experience it like I did, for they do not love sacrifice. They love their tenure within My project. And that must be corrected, for I invite you to be disciples, not governors.

I Am your King, the Father of all the essences in the world. I Am your sidereal Governor and you are My disciples, just as the twelve have always been; that Law will always be fulfilled.

I do not ask you to govern through My plans. I ask you to love through My Heart. Thus, all will be consummated.

We will listen to the "Pater Noster."

By the power of the Blood that is constantly shed from My Heart and the Water that sanctifies and justifies souls, I bless all these elements that will become sacred in the Eyes of God, and will be the sacramental offering of souls at the Thrones of God so that His Plan may triumph on Earth.

Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah!

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

I expect to see you mature and living your paths, mature of heart.

Go in peace.
