APPARITION OF CHRIST JESUS DURING THE 35th MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY, IN BUENOS AIRES, ARGENTINA, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

The triumph of My Sacred Heart will also occur in the memory of this planet.

Happy are they who participate in this journey, so that history may be written in the Books of God and the New Race is able to see it as a shining triumph.

Everything is possible, children of My Father, through the intercession of My Immaculate Heart and of the Chaste Heart of Saint Joseph, which in this Sacred Trilogy with Me, is united so that we may be able to defeat evil and dispel the darkness in hearts, which will be reborn in Me and in My Glory.

When the doors are closed to the enemy, the defeat is established and the Laws reestablish a principle from which humanity had previously distanced itself, because of being blind and deaf.

This Law that I bring you and which has triumphed in My Passion, in My Death, and in My Resurrection, is the Law of Love, of Unity, and of the Light, and today I invite you all to commune of it, so that your souls may be seen by God in full redemption.

On this afternoon, adore My Sacred Heart, which is again discovered to you, so as to feel relief from the offenses of the world and the human indifference. A Heart that reveals itself to you to show you the Love that nurtures life and the Spirit of each being.

Adore My Sacred Heart, which at this moment is exposed before all, for the Glory of God.

Adore My Heart, for those who do not adore It and for those who deny It; for those who have distanced themselves from My Father in corruption and vices, in temptation and in the forgetting of the Plan of God.

Adore My Heart, which is a portal that crosses over into the New Time, the New Time of souls, in their real and true life, in the Universe of God.

Mystify this moment as a testimony and do not forget it.

Adore My Most Holy Heart, which comes to the world to please you and to love you in the spirit and in the perfect union with God, the Almighty.

Who bows down to the ground, adores Me, and who cannot do it, also, because each act is seen by God in the humility of the hearts that serve Him in this time.

While you adore Me, receive My Rays from the Universe, that descend over you in Glory and in Light, in Omnipresence and in Omnipotence, in spiritual radiance and in life, for those who were dead.

Adore My Heart, as My angels adore It in this same moment, before the Portals of Heaven, over a city that cannot forget Me in any moment; so that it may be saved with the help of My new apostles, in this Work of Redemption and of Peace.

The world is being purified and does not adore My Heart. How can it be worthy of My Grace, if it does not seek it? How will the nations rise in the middle of darkness?

If I Am the victory for you, adore My Heart and enter into It, so that all may quickly pass and nothing ever hurt again in any part of your beings.

Stay calm, for My Heart is exposed to an indifferent world and the Legions of Light of all the Universe gather together to adore My Heart, which is the Heart of God, which is alive at this moment in each one of you, in each one of your consciousnesses, if you vivify it through this adoration.

Feel your bindings break free and the weight becoming less and less, and everything can be healed through the presence of My Sacred Heart, which is the burning flame for this world that is in darkness.

Let My Fount be poured out through My Sacred Heart in your essences and your lives.

This is the greatest Sacrament for your faith, for your support, for this end time that is drawing closer to the world.

Whomever wants to recognize that I am here, accept this, because I concretize what is impossible in the middle of the chaos and I open the doors of the Universe, so that all the children of God may enter and be saved.

This is the Communion that I establish today; relive this moment every day of your life and adore My Heart so that the world may receive the Grace that it so needs and so little deserves.

Carry My Sacred Heart engraved in your beings and ignite this Project of My Heart in each act of your life, in each gesture of love, in each work and act of solidarity to a fellow being, because there too I will be present, suffering in the silence of those who go dark for not having light.

I wanted to share this spiritual practice with you, companions, so that you always remember it, and further, you seek it in the difficult moments of the planet and of humanity.

Be like the shepherds of Fatima, who adored the Heart of God through My Sacred Heart, present in the powerful Eucharist that was given to them by the Angel of Peace.

It is thus, companions, that today I give you this same spiritual Eucharist with My Sacred Heart, that Communion with the eternal and the divine.

I want your voices to praise God, because My Father has told Me that you, with no indifference but with simplicity, touched His Heart, His eternal and merciful Heart.

Be as children and seek your childhood, the purity that was cultivated in the birth of your souls, in the reservoir of My Heart.

God be praised for this Grace and blessed are the merciful, for they will not only achieve My Mercy, but they will be towers of light for the times of darkness, stars for the world and humanity in the four corners of the Earth.

Today the angels share this Communion with you, for whomever may want to experience it, in fullness and humility.

Drink of this Source. Drink of this Source and emerge renewed, because the past is already past and today you are in My Eternal Present.

So may it be.

Today, with My Love, I bless all these images and symbols that you have brought to My altar, so that you may always remember that I am with you, not only in gladness, but also in sorrow, in the challenges and the confirmation of your faith before the Almighty.

May these sacred objects serve as a banner and as light in your lives, your homes, and wherever you may carry them, remembering that I blessed them, in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

While I am still present, companions, exposing My Sacred Heart to the whole world, I also want the consecrated and those who pray in the world to adore Me, just as their brothers and sisters did today, to thus concretize the Project of the Creator.

On this afternoon, I will bless the elements that will constitute the renewal of the lives of My new apostles, through the washing of feet; because remember that just as I did for My apostles, today I will bow down to the ground in Spirit and in Divinity, to erase your tracks from the past and all inner suffering, in honor of the Divine Mercy of God.

Whoever communes today will receive an annual expiation, which for My Most Sacred Heart will mean that on this same date and next year, you must repeat it again, so that this expiation may expand to your peers, brothers and sisters, and friends, and thus My Sacred Heart may triumph.

In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

At the request of Christ Jesus, we will sing "Adonai, Holy Spirit."

We inwardly prepare ourselves for the spiritual blessing.

Let us pray, together with the Master, the prayer of "Sacred Unity", while He consecrates the water for the Sacrament of the Foot-washing and also Communion. Let us pray together, with Him, united with His Sacred Heart.

Sacred Unity of God...(x5)

Thank you for being here with Me today, companions, and may Faith echo in your lives forever.

Let us continue singing to God in fullness and love.

I thank you!

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

Brothers and sisters, the Master is requesting, in this special Marathon here, in Buenos Aires, that we briefly share with you the story of each Apparition.

And today, when the Master had us all enter, in that deep adoration, into His Sacred Heart, we want to share with you that He revealed what He called "the Celestial Church," a space where His Most Holy Body, within a Monstrance of Light, is perpetually adored by the angels, in order to balance the errors and the actions that occur on this planet, in this local Universe.

In that state of consciousness, on that plane, in that celestial place, the Master summoned us all. And for those who had the opportunity, in some simple but real way, of entering His Heart in this adoration, He carried out an amnesty, what He called an "annual expiation," which on our part, if we take care of it, will last until next year, till June 5 of 2017, when He requested that each one, where they may be or how they may be, should again do this communion, to renew this amnesty, this expiation.

That it is not only for us, for Argentina in this case, but also for the planet and for the thousands of consciousnesses that are behind us in this infinite line, waiting for the door to open to them to enter the Heart of God and have a chance of redemption and of rehabilitation.

So that was what we wanted to share with you, because it was a very intense moment, as you could perceive.

He really carried out an act and a work of spiritual communion with each one of us and with the planetary consciousness.

Mother María Shimani de Monserrat:

One of the things we heard from Our Lord is that we are to carry His Heart in everything that we do. And with all of our love, we can imagine His Heart within ours, united to ours, and each day, in each task that we do, we can feel the Heart of Christ together with ours.

It is necessary to prepare ourselves, to train ourselves, so that when things get a little more intense or difficult, we can live with that Heart within ours.

It is an important practice that all of us have to learn, because this too we are going to carry wherever we may go; to our family members, to our acquaintances, to our work, to all our tasks; to carry the Heart of Christ within ours, together with ours, is something that we can all do.

So we invite you to deepen in the Words of Our Lord.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

And that does not end today, brothers and sisters. It continues tomorrow, because it is three days of blessings.

He found our hearts very open. We hope that each one takes care of that opening of His Heart, in this task of the Marathon of Divine Mercy and that tomorrow we can really give a golden brooch for this task of peace that Christ and the Divine Messengers are doing in Argentina.

Mother María Shimani de Monserrat:

So we will see each other tomorrow morning, in the transmission of 8 am. We wait for you all.

Good work from heart to heart for you all. Good afternoon.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

Thank you, Lord, for all that You give us!
