

Monday, June 5 of 2017

Apparition of the Glorified Christ Jesus during the 47th Marathon of Divine Mercy, in the city of Assisi, Italy, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón

Let us pray.

"Listen, Father, to the voice of Your creatures, of all the beings of goodwill and of good.

Listen, Father, to the voice of Your children, of all those that hold Your Divine Hope; of all those that aspire to find Your Will, Your Love, and Your Grace.

Beloved Father, descend now over Your creatures; may everything be permeated by Your Light, so that suffering may transform into joy; so that error may transform into liberation; so that sins may transform into salvation and all find the Great Portal to Your Peace.

O beloved Father! Today I bow down before You, in the luminous company of Saint Francis, because He has asked me to pray for humanity. And today I unite with His holy Heart which demonstrated, in past times, a love for Creation and life. Thus, may each essence be restored by Your Love. May offenses be dispelled. May Your Mercy shine and may hearts that are closed open to the essence of Your Divine Love.

O beloved Father! How much You have given for all Your creatures. How much you have given of Yourself for each created essence. How much, Father, You have manifested through the Kingdoms of Nature. May the Mineral Kingdom be cared for by the human heart. May the Plant Kingdom be praised by humanity from the surface of the Earth. May the Animal Kingdom be rescued and healed by the hands that give of themselves to unconditionally serve it.

May no more die on this Earth. May no more suffer through indifference. May no one miss the opportunity of loving and of finding Your Kingdom, Your Celestial Kingdom.

May all the evil generated between peoples, between nations and in the Kingdoms of Nature be restored by Your infinite Mercy.

May the eyes open of those, Lord, who still do not want to see You. May the hearts open that distanced themselves from You because of the actions of humanity, in all religions. May intermediaries no longer exist, may all be able to be Your true instruments of Peace.

O beloved Lord! Father of Creation and of beauty, cause Your stars of Glory to descend over a lost humanity.

Today My Heart pours out the Blood of His Love so that everything may be washed, purified, and again become worthy so as to find Your Love.

O Father of the Universes! May souls be able to look at the skies, the stars, the Sun and the Moon, to contemplate the Light of Your Love. May each heart feel how You, Father of Love, renew all things, regenerate all things, transform all things, for everything belongs to You, Father, in Heaven and on Earth, in the firmament as well as on the earth, in the oceans, on the continents, in everything You have created, it will always belong to You.

And turn Your creatures away, Lord, from the influences of evil. May this race, that is at the doorway of its great definition, not lose its union with Your Essence.

Today, Saint Francis, Your son, and Your wife, Saint Clare, implore, beloved Lord, for a greater Grace, incomprehensible and inconceivable to the humanity of the surface. But You, Lord, Who can do all things, You Who are the same Will that expressed love, grandeur, and Creation, conceive the principle of Your compassion in Your creatures, so that souls may find the way out toward Redemption.

Today, with Saint Francis and Saint Clare, I raise up the fallen stars, that fell into the abysses, that extinguished their inner light and lost the flame of Your Faith. I pour out and place those stars on the mantle of Your Mother, for it is She Who conceives life, the grace and the opportunity for all Your beings, in Her most pure and divine womb. It is She Who gestates in Herself the new Humanity. It is She Who grants the Mercy of Your Heart so that Your creatures may contemplate Your Holy Face.

And so, with Saint Francis and Saint Clare, surrounded by Your omnipresence and omnipotence, we ask You, Most High Lord, that you separate, set apart and distance humanity from the Ray of Your Justice, because You, Father, have sent Me so that Your children, who are imperfect, will emulate My path so as to manifest the New Christs.

Today I come here, to this land of Assisi, to re-consecrate it to Your Creation, to sister Poverty, to sister Humility, to brother Sun and sister Moon, as well as all that exists in Your greater universes.

May all be illuminated by Your kind Hand. May You, Father, pure and infinite Love, signal to Your children with the cross of freedom lived by Your Only Begotten, carried upon My Shoulders for the redemption of humanity.

May the Kingdoms of Nature be praised. May all the evil generated by the ignorance of Your children in the Kingdoms of Your Creation be dispelled so that Your Love and Your Compassion may incarnate in all.

Today we ask brother Sun that he not cease to shine in this world; that his rays penetrate the very depths of the most hardened hearts. That sister Moon illuminate the paths of tribulation that many are experiencing today in these times, so that all may contemplate how great Your Love is, written in the firmament, in the stars, in all of the universe.

Today, with Saint Francis and Saint Clare, united in the Most Holy Trinity, We offer You, Lord, this prayer as a plea of those who love Your Creation, Your Kingdoms created in image and likeness, treasures of Your infinite Love.

We offer, Lord, this Communion with life, with eternal life, with what is real, living, and resplendent.

May all feel Your Presence. May all awaken to the universe of Your Peace, Your Unity, forever."

Let us offer in the presence of Saint Francis and Saint Clare, for the Kingdoms that are not contemplated, this song that is now being played, that is a prayer of those who are true children of God and who love Creation and the Kingdoms of Nature.

Today My Heart will open like a tabernacle to receive this prayer from all creatures, from any part of the world, from any heart that unites in this moment with the Love of the Creator.

I place My left Hand on My Heart, I raise My right Hand over the world to bless it with all the Love of God, and in this way, I receive the plea of this prayer from your voices.

I am listening.

May you find in the Body and the Blood the fruit of your salvation, and may that fruit, based on the Love, Unity, and Mercy of God, reach all the souls of the world.

So be it.

And now, inwardly ask Saint Francis and Saint Clare for what you need and all your brothers and sisters need more than you yourselves. Ask sincerely, for these saints will receive your pleas in Their hearts. Ask, and all will be fulfilled. Ask for humanity. Ask for the Kingdoms of Nature, grievously offended by this race of the surface. Ask that love, forgiveness, and reconciliation between Creation and humanity may be conceived, so that in this way, the thousand years of peace may be established.

Place your hands in a sign of prayer.

We will pray the Our Father slowly, as if you were pronouncing it for the first time, so that His Kingdom may descend and evil be extirpated from humanity.

Now place your hands on your heart so that I may bless you for those who are not blessed and who forget that My Heart is the great treasure of infinite Love for all of humanity and for the Kingdoms of Nature.

Raising My right Hand on High, in the sign of blessing and protection, I grant forgiveness to the Minor Kingdoms assaulted by this humanity of the surface and I implore the Holy Father, Lord of the Heights and of Creation, to have Mercy on those that have fallen and have hurt His Divine Creation.

May Light, Peace, and the Good reign forever in believers and in those who aspire to someday reach the Kingdom of Your Love. In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

I thank you for being united with Creation.