Apparition of Christ Jesus during the Sacred Call, in Bahía Blanca, Argentina, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús

Let My Spirit completely invade you, so that you may understand what I need today.

Let My Heart fill you and transform you, so that a new being may be created in you.

I come to be over Argentina because it needs it in this final time and its hearts also need it, so that they may learn to live in God and thus know how to fulfill His Purpose, which comes in these times to call all hearts, all lives, to open to unify with Me in Love and in Truth.

But today, I do not only come for you, companions; I also come for those who already follow Me, for those who are already experiencing their tests, for those who are facing their transformation.

But know that everything is in its place, both what the world experiences and what you experience now in this time of transition, in which souls and hearts must learn to love, like they have never before loved.

So you must be strong, be brave, and take the definitive steps toward My Heart; I will help you, companions.

I am here extending My Hand to you so that you may hold it tightly and know how to walk with Me in this time of darkness, in this time of challenges; where even you do not know what may happen a second from now.

So live in Faith, live in Love, and aspire every day to the Divine Unity, so that My Father may receive you with open Arms; so that He may be able to give you His Graces, and so that in this time, the new human may be forged in you, that human that is free from ties, from chains, and from prisons.

Let the Fire of My Heart pierce you deeply.

Let My Light mingle in you, from essence to spirit: let everything be modified, let nothing become crystallized, let everything be transfigured, and may everything be polarized toward the Light, so that you may know My Kingdom in the coming time; that Kingdom of which I have spoken in past times to the apostles and to all those who had the Grace of hearing My Voice in the Name of God.

I come to give you the same; I come to give you My Legacy.

You need to learn to live within the Law and not step out of it. If you are within the Law, companions, you will be protected and not have to suffer.

Accept this time of transformation as something unique, and cease to cause suffering to your brothers and sisters; on the contrary, let them be able to feel your love, your transparency, and your humility that must arise from your hearts, that must rise up out of your essences, so that the old human may die and the true spirit emerge; that spirit that will receive the gifts of God, that spirit that will be a part of the new humanity and the new Earth.

Meanwhile, transform, transform a lot, but in truth, do it for Me and for your brothers and sisters.

Demonstrate to God that you are understanding and do not lose any more time, because My Return is close and I will need you to be true; as true, as clear as the water that emerges from the depths of the earth and that gives you to drink of life, that takes away your thirst, that heals you and redeems you.

My companions, be the balm of God; be healers of the new time through prayer rather than words; be servers through example and charity; let the hearts of the world be able to feel the expression of your love, so that all may be vivified and redeemed as God, our Father Who is in the Heavens, needs it.

Cross the bridge, companions, over the abysses and unite in ties of love and of unity, so that you can cross it without fear or doubts.

Because if your faith is strong, nothing will torment you, and you will have the firmness and courage to be able to cross many more bridges; bridges that await you later on, in the coming time, when everything finishes being defined.

Today I come here for you and for the world, with this message, to awaken an awareness of Love in each human heart; a Love that will make you free, a Love that will take you away and will bring you out of the captivity which you may be in at this time.

But continue to trust in My Divine Mercy, because in this way, I will always help you.

While I speak to you, I come to free you from the prisons of that which distresses you, from all that disturbs your heart. The time that is coming will not be easy. I cannot promise you eternal life on this planet in flames and in tribulations; but I can promise you My Kingdom, while you are here, serving Me tirelessly.

I ask you to grow not only in your heart, but also in consciousness, knowing in this time to discern wisely; so that each test that you experience, companions, you know how to overcome it and do not position yourselves in a constant shipwreck that does not exist, that only exists in the mind.

In this time, allow the spiritual Hierarchy to open the doors to the unknown, and the secrets will be able to be unveiled, because your spirits will thus be uplifted and you will not be immersed in this matter that ties you to perdition and does not allow you to take the step to a real surrender.

Like with My apostles, I come to ask you for what is simple, what is born of the heart; so believe in what I tell you, because in this way, it will be fulfilled.

Do not let yourselves be deceived anymore; open your eyes to be able to look toward infinity and in this way, find your true origin.

You came here to this world to experience love and forgiveness, acceptance, compassion, surrender, and consideration for your fellow beings.

If the world does not unite in this time, it will not be able to survive; just as you united today in Me and I am able to unite with you, companions.

Make this example live for your brothers and sisters, and family, because they will need it. At this time, there must not be divisions, conflicts, or doubts. In the most culminating hour of the Earth, the Sacred Unity must prevail. This will make you strong, will make you invincible, and in this way, you will know to wait for Me, up until the last second, when I will place My feet on this planet.

I come to Argentina because I love it and I need its unconditional response, to be able to carry forward with My Redeeming Work in this part of the world.

I sent you the faithful Messenger of God, so that you could hear Her; now I come to meet you so that you also hear Me with the sacred ardor of your heart and with the full devotion of God.

I come to bring you the new and what is still unknown to you; I come to bring you what you have never experienced in this life. I offer you communion with My Sacred Heart, so that you dare every day to love a little more than what you think you love.

Be compassionate with those who suffer and do not complain to them, be compassionate with those who support My Work and do not complain to them; because on them I have placed the weight of My Cross, so that they may carry it with Me until the end, even though nobody understands it.

But I will not leave alone those to whom I have entrusted My Kingdom, just as I entrust the Kingdom to you, My companions.

To live for God is the greatest responsibility, but at its core, it is full of His Glory, of His celestial happiness.

I do not want you, in this time, to lose the chance of growing internally and of doing things for love rather than through human strength. Join hands and be a single family, so that Our Sacred Hearts may be here, among you, all the time.

I wish you to be a mirror of My Heart on this planet, which is in an agony that many do not want to see.

Leave your houses, go through the doors of your homes and you will find the reality of which I speak in this very moment. The suffering and the pain have expanded over the world and within all beings.

You must help Me to relieve it and not to generate it. You must help Me to uproot it and not to create it. In this time, be generators of the Divine Mercy of My Heart, so that I may be able to be present in those who are most in need of Healing and Redemption.

To those who have been following Me for a while, I say: Use the tools that God gave you and you will be able to overcome all the times and all the tests.

Honor the Legacy that was placed into your hands during so many years and put it into practice; in this way, you will help Me so that My Mission may expand in the world and is not restricted by its forms.

In this hour, drink from the fountain of knowledge that I bring you and you will be able to transform; but allow Me, companions, to enter into your hearts and lives and in this way, I will be able to erase what makes you suffer and what disturbs you.

If the world listened to My Words, it would already be different. If the world experienced My Words, it would already be different. But I know that this will depend on My companions and on My servers.

Let this same Grace that I unconditionally bring you be able to reach those who most need it.

Today I will have the Grace of blessing a family, in the name of many more, so that the healing of My Sacred Heart may be established in those who aspire someday to find peace.

Today I will anoint you with the oil of reparation, in the same way that the holy women anointed My Body in the sepulcher, to honor and give glory to your Redeemer.

Today, through consecrating this family, I will consecrate the families of the world for this Christmas; so that this same opportunity of redemption, of forgiveness, and of reconciliation, companions, may reach the souls that despair and that have no inner Light.

May it be possible to open the doors for the healing of souls and that everything be renewed.

May it be possible to open the doors to reconciliation, and everyone be forgiven.

Because My desire is to be able to live you fully and without restrictions; just as I was able to live in many hearts of imperfect but saintly men and women, who lived My sorrowful Passion.

Through this oil, today I establish the divine consecration of this family that I have chosen at the request of My Father, so that many more families may awaken to true love and forgiveness.

I offer this consecration for the great family of the Community of Nueva Tierra, and I wish this oil to be used to anoint those who are ill in that place; and I wish them to know that I have not forgotten anybody and I will come to them in due time, to carry them into a new life, free of suffering, free of agitation, pain, and anguish.

May the wings of these souls who are ill in the Community of Nueva Tierra be able to open, because the time has come for them to take the great flight to God, the Creator.

My last wish, companions, before this special anointing for the families of the world and for the children, is that you know that I will wait for My companions, My followers and the families of the Kingdom of Aurora during this month of December; so that you may see your Lord walking amongst the orange trees, living and feeling in the hearts that believe in inner healing and in redemption; so that in them may sprout the New Aurora, the new dawn in each being.

Almighty Lord, Who deigned to be present in the Body and the Blood of Your Son, through the Passion, the Death, and the Resurrection, I ask you, Father, on this night, that you bless Argentina so that it may enter into the project of Your Promised Land. Amen.

I give you peace so that you may experience it, and always give it to your brothers and sisters.

I also want you to take medallions of My Glorified Heart to the Community of Nueva Tierra; because My aspiration is to be on the breast and the hearts of My children to protect and accompany them more closely.

I bless you, in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

And I thank you in this evening for having sought My peace and My consolation.
