

Saturday, May 19 of 2018

DAILY MESSAGE OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED DURING THE JOURNEY FROM SÃO PAULO, TO THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

Blessed be those who surrender and consecrate themselves to Me, those who leave their families and loved ones so that My Work may be fulfilled upon the planet.

Blessed be those who are rejected, slandered and offended for My cause, because in the Kingdom of Heavens wait for them the Treasures of the Father, the jewels that will shine within their crowns of light.

Blessed be those who are despised and verbally offended by their family, because I will always give them the inner strength they need to demonstrate that their commitment with Me is not transferable.

Blessed be those who are rejected and despised by their loved ones, because when the day of the awakening of these consciousnesses comes, they will realize late everything wonderful that they lack.

May those who are sad for some of these reasons be glad, because the Light of My Heart will not be lacking from them, because it will be the Light and Love of My living Heart that will make them speak wonderful things, which will silence the judgments and will erase from space any comment or offense.

May those who cry for having been offended rejoice because, in truth, I tell you, that each tear that you shed for My cause will be precious counted by the angels, just as the Blood that was shed by the Lamb; this will save you, because you will go directly to eternal life and will no longer suffer.

Joyful be those who believe in the Work of My Return, because they will be sitting by the Master when He celebrates the Last Supper of Redemption during the Universal Judgment of humanity.

I thank you for surrendering to My Heart!

Who blesses you,

Your Master, Christ Jesus