SPECIAL MESSAGE OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED IN MONTSERRAT, BARCELONA, SPAIN, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, FOR THE 101ST MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

My God,
I believe,
I adore, I wait for and I love Thee.
I ask pardon for those who do not believe,
do not adore, do not wait for and do not love Thee.

Amen.
(three times)

Today, before the majesty and the sovereignty of these mountains, I greet you all.

Behold the Resurrected, behold the One who gave His life for you and keeps giving it in these times, for one goal: the redemption and conversion of humanity, beyond beliefs, beyond religions, beyond dogmas, ideas or atheism.

I am the Resurrected, and I present Myself before the world once again, to announce My Message of Peace and of the end of war. So that this may happen, all souls and consciousnesses must surrender before Me. This will allow, before the Celestial Father, for humanity to be thoroughly saved and it will allow areas of this planet not to be lost due to ignorance and wickedness.

Behold the Resurrected, the One who resurrected on the third day from the dead, who rose to the Heavens, who will return in Glory with all consciousnesses and Hierarchies to re-establish in this world the Government of the planet, the true Government of humanity, a Spiritual Government that has never been sown in the external consciousness or within life.

Therefore, when the Resurrected returns to the world, He will not only come in Glory, but also in splendor, to announce to all the arrival of the New Times, the arrival of the New Earth, after it is purified, as it is being purified now, after this Earth and this humanity understand, once and for all, that they must turn to God, because without God, humanity is nothing, it is a dead, fragile and poor humanity.

Through My Words, I come to bring you the riches of the universe, the Word of God that may become flesh within you through examples of charity and the good, which is what humanity lacks, which is what the human race lacks; it lacks the experience of the good and charity so as to find in itself the Mercy it needs in order to redeem and save itself, so that this planet, as a spiritual consciousness, may become rescuable.

I come from the top of these majestic and sovereign mountains of Montserrat to announce to the world that the time of My Return is coming, and that at each new day this Return becomes closer, closer to all.

Keep elevating your prayers and supplications to Heaven for those who do not do so, for those who do not live it, for those who deny God and do not fulfill the Universal Laws. If this keeps happening this way, the world will enter greater chaos.

Be intelligent and do not allow My adversary to advance over this humanity, be peacemakers, be merciful, be representatives of Christ on Earth, through your transformation and the transformation of your consciousnesses. Thus, you will give a living testimonial, not a passing one, you will give a true testimonial, not a poor one.

For this reason, I am here to make you brave and persevering; so that, through My Heart, the Heart of the Resurrected, you may again find life, and your brothers and sisters may again find the life they have lost, the life that I call spiritual life.

Meanwhile, I would like to tell you that the Hierarchies that accompany Me today, the Wise Hierarchies of the universe, untiringly work at this planetary moment, especially for those who are struck by the wars and conflicts, especially for those who keep being discarded, enslaved and martyred by their brothers of humanity.

The moment the Son of God returns, He Himself, in His Sovereign Presence, will face those consciousnesses that denied Him, especially the ones who rule the governments of this world, who will be, face to face, before the King and the Son of God.

But I will not come to impose a law or a punishment, I will come to demonstrate, even more, the infinite universe of My Love, which I invite you to continue grasping and understanding through consciousness and acts of love. Thus, you will not only be My servers, but you will also be the merciful consciousnesses of God that will attract to Earth the Divine Laws, which, up to today, humanity does not fulfill nor live.

The absence of the Higher Laws in this humanity generates the chaos it is living today and attracts very great inequality and indifference through those who only fill their pockets with wealth, and do not share it with the poorest and most discarded.

Therefore, My Message comes to the most simple of heart, the purest of intention, for the most humble.

I do not come to seek those who are perfect, intelligent or clever, I come to seek those who consider themselves as sinners, those who need My Hearts Flame of Love so as to redeem themselves and keep moving forward on this path toward My Celestial Father, which I offer to you.

Meanwhile, the Eternal Father has His Arms open, but His Heart is filled with arrows due to the hatred, the conflicts, the wars, the indifferences and, mainly, due to the lack of love and fraternity throughout the human consciousness.

I know My Spiritual and Divine Presence, at this moment that is previous to My Return, awakens and activates many Inner Christs that do not live any religion, that do not live any dogma nor practice any philosophy, but rather, through service, their hearts are filled with peace, with bliss and the joy of serving others.

It is there, where My Redeeming and Merciful Love also acts deeply, in the most difficult abysses of the planet, in the hells of the consciousnesses of nations, where only violence, hatred and evil are practiced.

Although everything may seem to be destroyed in some nations of the world, I promise to raise them again, so that they may be the true Kingdom of God that they came to this world to be, but which, for different reasons and motives, their brothers of humanity impeded this Project of Mine for the nations.

I will make new treasures bloom in hearts. I will make new experiences bloom in hearts. And all those who have believed in Me will be able to receive the impulses of My Love, which will bring them wisdom and discernment for these times of transition.

In this way, you will not only be prepared, but also, through your examples of service and love, you will prepare your brothers and sisters, especially those who are not aware of spirituality and Higher Life.

For this reason, I come today especially to Montserrat so that the consciousness may rise to God, so that the human race may turn to the universe and contemplate the starry firmament of this Creation and remember that there is a very special place for each consciousness, for each soul and for each being, which is their origin.

If souls turn to their origin, their spirits will return to their primordial origins. In this way, the spirit of the government of this humanity and of this planet will be rebuilt, when all has been purified.

Many ask themselves in the inner planes: how much time will pass before the Redeemer returns?

Today, I tell you again, that it is not much time; but while I cannot return to your hearts, while you do not give your lives completely to Me, and while you do not resist every inner aspect, I will not be able to return.

It is in this way that I need to justify, before the Eternal Father, this great universal movement. Be conscious of this moment, because there is no longer time.

My Lips pronounce the Words of God's Will to all consciousnesses.

My Heart radiates the Impulses of the Divine Source at this moment, in the face of this situation of the planet and of humanity.

While I am here, I stabilize the planes of consciousness for all those who need peace, for all those who are fleeing the war, persecution and death, because your Master and Lord knows what it is to die in loneliness. He lived it on the Cross in His own Flesh, at each minute and at each second of the Calvary.

But in this loneliness that many consciousnesses are living in the world today, due to different reasons, to poverty, discarding, inequality, indifference, misery, disease, or even due to wickedness, they find inner strength through My Presence, when they just think of Me.

Thus, I make you walk beyond what you believe you can do, surpassing your limitations, your deserts and even your difficulties. The Love of God is capable of going beyond, and I will give you an example so that you may understand: at this moment, of suffering and darkness for the Ukraine, your Master and Lord has proposed special help for all the essences that are going through this moment through a simple humanitarian service, which is precise, but also profound, because it means bringing the Light of Christ to those places where it is most needed.

In the same way, My aspiration for Africa is latent.

Not only for Europe, but also the whole world, all those who hear My Voice and believe in My Message must keep in mind these two aspirations of your Master and Lord because whether or not there will be greater relief for humanity will depend on these tasks, on these events.

At the next Marathon, I want you to already feel as My apostles, rather than aspire to be My apostles.

The world needs an apostolate, not an apostolate of evangelization, but rather an apostolate of service, of love, of charity and even of redemption; of bringing peace to where it does not exist, of transmuting evil where it is present, through silence and prayer, through the elevation of the consciousnesses.

Thus, you will learn to do the same as I did for you, when I was on Earth. In this way, I will be able to count on consciousnesses that love the Law of Transmutation and do not avoid it, because this is the time to do something for others.

May this Marathon be a confirmation for each server so that, at the next meeting with Me or in the next Sacred Week, I can mention the needs of the Plan that I foresee for the world, that is, to place the consciousnesses at the service of Africa, of the Middle-East and Europe, as well as other places of the world.

But so that this may be real, you must love My aspirations and you must want to live them, concretize and even carry them out, because you know that I can do many things, but now I resign before you, so that you can do more than I did, so long ago.

You must be generators of hope for the world, of a hope that has been conditioned, of a hope that has suffered mutation due to the contrary projects of humanity. You must make the world remember that God gave you life and that life is the most precious thing that the Father gave you.

The world no longer wants to respect life. The world wants to abort life and does not know what it connects to when it makes this movement. If a life is about to emerge, this life must be respected and loved, just as you have been loved and respected since your birth.

If I had never been born in a poor Manger of Bethlehem, the world would not have understood the Purpose of God. If I had not preached, the world would not have understood the Parables. If I had not died on the Cross, the world would not have adored Me as the Firstborn.

Remember that I am a Bridge to God. I am the Great Mirror of Divine Mercy, and, each time it presents itself, it also projects and refracts throughout the whole world, in all souls, under any condition and situation.

The time has come for the confirmed apostles. The hour has come for you to cease to have a tepid heart, to have feet on two paths, on two pathways, because I tell you again, as I once told you, that I am the Way, the Truth and the Life.

I thank you because you pray to My Celestial Mother, as that Great Worker of God works for peace in Eastern Europe, together with all angelic consciousnesses.

Let us keep creating the bridges toward the universe, let us keep opening the correct doors and closing uncertain doors, because evil will be defeated through Love.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
