DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

The true souls that heal others do so through love. Therefore, My healing Rays descend upon them to carry out the work of liberation from the past.

The instruments of healing are guided by the Fire of the Holy Spirit and it is this Divine Fire that inspires them, without delay, to heal the heart and the soul of those who are spiritually hurt.

In these times, the true Healer is guided by the fluidity and by the principles of Christic healing, gifts that the Holy Spirit provided so that the Son of God would carry forward His Healing and Redeeming Work.

For this, everything is united to the same principle, which is the Love of God. In this way, the healing of the soul and of the body may happen spontaneously, only because the consciousness has received the Love of God.

The path to healing the spirit of the sick is infinite, and this is possible stemming from the healer's merciful union with their Master.

The main diseases throughout the world will only be able to be healed by love, and there will never exist a greater spiritual science than the Love of God, which will reestablish the codes of life that have been lost.

Intentionally, I today want to visit one of the few points of healing in the world that radiates love and sows it within the infirm soul. I refer to the Sector of Healing at the Marian Center of Figueira, which has awakened to the knowledge of Universal Healing. Such Healing emanates directly from the Primordial Source of Love and of Unity. These principles are present because the mission of the instruments of healing has been to continue the examples of the Christ, Man of God and Healer.

Under this gift of the Love of Christ, the hearts that have truly been open have received My Rays of Healing and of peace through the apostles of Christic Healing.

In order to respond to the epicenter of Christic Healing, one must only pray with the heart so that the Work of the Holy Spirit may be realized within the suffering souls.

Under the Love of the Father, be blessed.

Thank you for helping to heal and relieve the hearts of all beings.

Christ Jesus, the Master Healer of the Heart.
