DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, MOTHER OF THE DIVINE CONCEPTION OF THE TRINITY, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

Awake in the dawn under My Maternal Presence.

Begin to take your first steps towards My Heart of Mother. Quench your thirst with the inexhaustible source of My prayer. Open your heart to humility.

Feel in thought the One and Only Mind of God so that your feelings may be pure.

Direct yourself towards the Temple of the Creator and celebrate with joy what He has given to you.

Live in His Will to be able to understand the steps in your consciousness.

Unite your gaze and your soul to the eternal Heaven.

During the day, be like the flower and express gratitude in reverence.

Be like crystalline water, travel all the paths, as prayer does. Give yourself like the stars, shine constantly like the Light. Encounter on the path, one sister: prayer.

Allow her to convert your being, let her liberate the path.

Proclaim with unity the power of the Divine Word so that filled by My wondrous Love, you may see before your eyes, the Presence of God.

Enter the Heavens with your brothers and sisters. Contemplate Creation in prayer.

Seek restlessly the law of Spirit so that life may be consecration.

If you live selfless love, opening your soul with prayer, the Holy Spirit will pour the flame of eternal devotion over your being.

Whenever you feel that life has defeated you, that pain has beaten you, and that suffering has dried up the source of adoration, affirm the union of your soul with Me because My Heart will come to help you.

For your soul, I am the Guardian of Faith. For your heart, I am the Mother of Graces.

I want, My dear, that you connect your soul to My Eternal Heart. For this you must pray, not only for yourself, but for the whole world.

Dry from the Face of God the tears that the world has generated in Him.

Convert life into a prayer for this final time.

My voice is coming to the ears that want to hear and to live it. Nothing is separated between humanity and God. All your hearts must be only one, thus they will be able to live in peace. In order to not create wars, the thoughts must be pure.

For humanity to grow up, surrender must be greater.

The Lord of the Holy Heavens wants to carry everyone in His blessed and beloved Heart.

As souls, you must please Our God with good works of peace. Thus, in a little time, the world will be able to be something else and the life of many souls will change.

For this reason, My little ones, I come to the aid of all, announcing My Good News of Peace.

I wait for you as My servers. I await you in prayer.

Thus, the Peace of My Kingdom will be in souls and My Immaculate Heart will triumph.

In the Eternal Peace,

Mary, Mother of the Divine Conception of the Trinity
