MESSAGE OF THE HOLIEST VIRGIN MARY, TRANSMITTED TO MOTHER SHIMANI

My beloved children:

I want that you surrender to Me your tiredness, so that I may convert it into works and flowers for God.

I want that you surrender to Me your sacrifice, so that I may convert it into the balance that humanity needs before the universe.

I want that you surrender to Me your restlessness, for not doing more than what you do so that I may convert it in a present to Our Lord.

I want that you surrender to Me your doubts and afflictions for your future because I will convert them into peace, and I will return them to you converted into faith.

My dear children, companions of My Beloved Son:

Let's go ahead! Continue with faith through this path that takes you to the Heart of the King of the universe, your King and Mine. Go ahead with bravery in spite of the tiredness, of the misunderstandings of others and of ingratitude.

Go ahead in spite of the judgments and calumnies, as My Son and I are guarding your beings.

Donate yourselves until you do not have more to give, more to surrender, and there you will encounter the celestial bliss that can only be encountered in the divested service towards the others.

Other children of Mine depend on your strength, on your perseverance, on your constant donation, children who cannot donate themselves because they are enveloped in their own satisfactions and do not see the love of My Heart.

It is for them that you must donate yourselves so that My Son, who has thirst for these souls, may, through you, quench it.

My children: embrace the sacrifice with joy, with gratitude, because in spite of what it may seem, it is in this sacrifice that you will learn the pathway of Christ.

I Am accompanying you all the time, observing each movement of your beings, as a loving mother takes care of Her little ones.

Never loose heart, that soon the Lord will be amongst you.

I love you and I bless you.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen

Mary, Queen of Heaven and of the Earth.
