Daily Message of Mary, Rose of Peace, transmitted in the Marian Center of Aurora, Paysandu, Uruguay, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón

To respond to the convocation of Christ means to unite with His Heart and concretize His Plan of Redemption on the surface of the Earth.

That convocation, which is done by Christ, embraces many purposes, in which the majority of souls are invited to participate.

In this time, in which everything is defined, the flocks of My Son are called to graze in new fields, where their consciousnesses and missions can be carried out and expanded, just as the Holy Creator thought.

Thus, dear children, those who respond to the convocation of Christ are able to discover the inner purpose they came to accomplish, for this humanity and for this planet.

The convocation made by Christ, in this time, opens the doors of Grace and of Mercy; and the consciousnesses that follow Him are able to reverse all their errors and experience a special atonement that dissolves all the previous links with evil.

Today, the Lord of Mercy knocks on the door of each soul to call His new apostles, so that they may accompany Him on this preparatory mission of His expected Return.

It is in this way, My children, that Christ comes into the life of each disciple with determination so that the inner consciousness is activated, glimpses its main mission and makes of it a torch that will illuminate its paths to the Kingdom of God.

As your Mother, I follow this moment, in which those that wake up to this truth, essentially discover that they had always been here to take a great step, a step toward the Lord.

I thank you for responding to My call!

Who loves you,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace
