DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, ROSE OF PEACE, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF SANT ESTEVE SESROVIRE, CATALUÑA, SPAIN TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

Every day, the spirit of prayer and of service to others will help you grow inwardly, and above all, be a good example to those who are around you and those who do not know you.

In all things you must emulate My Son Jesus, for He was with the rich, but was also with the poor, and His Divine Feelings did not change with appearances.

With this I wish to tell you that a true disciple is one who accurately follows what their Master tells them, and every day, tries to fulfill it better, in spite of their limitations and tests, because if the disciple does not learn to temper themselves when with others, how will the other souls be able to find the Living Christ in you?

For this reason, meditate on what I tell you and see how, every day, in the face of various situations, your hearts and your lives manifest examples, and whether these are in essence truly Christic and solemn.

You must treat life, things, and above all, what belongs to another with solemnity, because you do not know what mystery there is behind each situation or event.

If you temper your actions, if you lovingly observe the rules, you will finally learn in these difficult times to represent My Son on Earth. If not, if you do not yet take care of simple things and people as if they were true treasures of Heaven given by God, how will you be able to be merciful with a fellow being?

Remember the Commandments and put them into practice again; because you may be robbing and would not perceive it, you may be killing the inner awakening of a fellow being with your actions and would not perceive it, you could be flaunting and using something that is not yours and you would be seriously infringing on the Law, you would be in serious debt.

The Kingdom of God is the promise of God for all; seek it first within yourself on a daily basis, do not allow arrogance, undue infractions or indifference blind your heart, for you may not be perceiving it.

Correct your life every day and do it for Jesus, for the triumph of His Plan of Love in creatures.

I thank you for truly listening to Me and for putting My words into practice!

Who blesses you,

Your Mother, the Virgin Mary, Rose of Peace
