Special Apparition of the Virgin Mary, March 2, 2018, in the city of Quito, Ecuador, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús

Today I am crowned by the Most Holy Trinity, bringing to your hearts the Purity of God, that purity so original that brought forth all things, to the manifestation of life and the whole Creation.

In the Purity of God is the Love of the Father, that Love that regenerates everything, and makes it possible to rescue hearts and remove the lost souls from the hells.

Today I come clothed of the Purity of God and crowned by the prayers of My children, knowing that, in these times, it is essential to reinforce the prayer from the heart, not only for the transformation of life but also for the recovery and restoration of the planet.

Today I come filled with the Essence of God called "Original Purity".

I come filled with that which is within you, that lives in your inner worlds and that will always help you to reconnect with God.

I come to close a cycle and to start a new cycle, thus I come filled with the spirituality of God, to purify your hearts and lives, to unify you to the love of God, and in the mystery of His great science, where once everything was originated for this humanity, as for other planets, for the whole Creation.

I would like you to know, dear children, that the original purity, that dwells in you, comes from the universe of God, gestated by the holy hands of the Angels of the Father, in His sublime Sources of Creation.

From there, dear children, comes everything, and there you must one day return, with the lived experience of love and redemption, with the lived experience of forgiveness and reconciliation; knowing that all human beings, no matter how imperfect they are, will never lose the original purity of their hearts.

That is why I invite you tonight, dear children, to look within yourselves, to discover your inner universe and to find yourself with God in the Living Flame of His Original Purity, where neither sin, guilt or perdition exists.

Today I come to cleanse your hearts, but I also come to heal your wounds, seeking in you the purity of the heart, that living and shining flame that will renew all things.

This is My main message for today, seek the Purity of God within you, and you will be able to enter to the Kingdom of the Heavens.

Relive in these times the Gospel of My Son, so that the purity in your hearts may awaken.

No longer seek, dear children, separation, division or criticism. Open your hearts to the Purity of God, and the Purity of the Father will be able to awaken in you at this time.

Do not complicate your lives more, dear children, make things simple day by day. Live and imitate the Sacred Family, so that the celestial treasures of the Purity of God, through the sublime mirrors, may be reflected upon the souls of the Earth; may darkness in the hearts vanish, may the Light and Love of Christ triumph in these times.

I invite you tonight, dear children, in a simple and maternal way, to rediscover the path to the heart where wounds, guilt and suffering do not exist. Believe in yourselves, believe in this Original Purity that is within you; seek it through the path of prayer, of a merciful life, of a life filled with service to fellow beings.

Thus, you will be repairing the wounded Heart of God, and you, dear children, will be this perfect balm of love that will grant the world that your Celestial Mother returns to everyday to help the lost hearts, to awaken the planetary consciousness, to grant in this last cycle a little more time of peace, especially in those places where it does not exist.

Give great value, dear children, to the prayer for peace in the nations.

This simple exercise that My Heart has granted you to perform every day of the week, praying for those nations that suffer so much, that live in darkness and inside the abysses of the planet, so that they may recover and move forward. Praying for cultures so distant, for brothers and sisters so far away, who feel and live, just like you, the greatness of My Immaculate Heart.

Dear children, in this cycle may everything be renewed, and that tonight you leave here living a true commitment with Me, so that I can return everyday, for a little longer, bringing the light of the Kingdom of the Heavens and the Infinite Mercy of the Creator.

Because, if I am not among you daily, dear children, in truth I confess, this world would be unbalanced as quickly as the passing hours and the planet would move abruptly.

It is the prayer of your hearts, the prayer for the nations, service, charity and good, the communion and confession with My Son, that allows Me to come back everyday to the world, that allows Me to bring the Grace of God to this world that does not deserve it, so that everything can be stabilized, and, above all, the axis of the earth maintains in its balance.

Remember that I am the Mother of the World, the Universal Mother and Mother of humanity. I am the Mother of all people, who consoles all hearts and lives, the Mother who is with the poor and the rich, with those who are equal of heart and soul, the Mother who is also with those who are indifferent and still do not live God in their heart.

I come for the whole world, for all nations and all peoples.

I would like this current of prayer for peace in the nations to grow, do not feel limited, nor hindered to learn to pray in different languages, in order to help the angels of the nations, so that they may accomplish their great spiritual task in these difficult times, with the loving support of all My children.

Today I would like for you to not feel grief in your heart, because if the Mother of Life is here, life can be regenerated and the most profound feelings can be healed. For God nothing is impossible, for the Servant of God nothing is impossible.

Today I come clothed of the Purity of God, to remind you of this commitment with Me, that through the prayer of the heart and the loving services to the world, everything can be renewed and repaired, and your lives can finally be other, when you simply take the step, just as I took it before the Archangel Gabriel.

Today, I do not come only to tell you that I will be with you a little time longer everyday, but of the joy that My Heart feels, the bliss that My Spirit feels in telling you that My Son will also be here everyday, to bring the world the last lifeline for all hearts, all religions, and all peoples, in order to prepare the world, for one whole year, for His return.

May nobody lose this opportunity to relive the Words of Christ, to relive in your hearts the simple words of the Mother of God, but also to study them again as spiritual impulses present for these times in which you will still have the key, the inner key to be able to transform yourselves, just as God wishes, for these final times.

Finally, I wish, dear children, that your lives may be Original Purity, and that this purity may be reflected to the world, so that souls awaken from their drowsiness and may open their eyes to the Kingdom of God, which still keeps the doors open so that many more souls may enter into His Heart.

Do not lose this Grace; receive this Mercy with the humility of your hearts, so that tonight all may be renewed, just as God has thought it since the beginning.

I come here to bring Heaven to Earth, the Consciousness of God to humanity, the Truth to a planet that lives in lies, in order to awaken the hearts to the great feeling of the Love of God, to the spiritual filiation with His Great Divine Consciousness.

Tell the world that I will be coming to you everyday for a little time longer, in order to prepare your hearts for the time that will come, which will not be an easy time. You know, dear children, that time will change, humanity will change and your planet as well.

For that, you must be prepared and firm. You must take My Words and My Instructions, the Instructions of My Son, as stairways to Heaven, so that you may be protected and safeguarded by My Heart.

May My Words be heard in every language; this is My most ardent wish for this year, may My Message of Peace spread to the world so that the souls awaken, so that bombs do not detonate in humanity, over all those planes that My enemy stimulates in a blind humanity, closed of heart, for not being able to see God.

I invite you to the time of the great awakening of the consciousness, to the awakening of your inner senses, to come out of what is superficial and embrace all brothers and sisters with an immense love and an infinite Mercy.

Thus, dear children, although everything is so hard and difficult in this humanity, everything will be fulfilled and I will be able to continue coming to you until God indicates, as it is written in His eternal Heart.

Place your hands in sign of reception, because today your Celestial Mother, clothed of the Purity of God, the Rose of Peace, comes to reconfirm in your hearts and in the hearts of all beings of the world, the reunion with its original purity.

Water to bless...

Receive from My Heart this Grace that should not be lost, because the Mother of God, Mother of the Universe and Earth, of the Angels and all souls, comes to reopen the Spiritual Source of the Original Purity, in the souls of the world that say "yes" to the call of the Creator.

May the Source of the Holy Spirit descend upon this element, and may everything be renewed, may souls awaken to their original Source so that everything may be redeemed.

May the water baptize the lives of the world, redeem the sins and heal the hearts of their most profound wounds.

Today I do not only come to consecrate those who have taken the step to My Immaculate Heart. Today, as Mother of all and Mother of humanity, I come to renew this consecration for all those who are present here and for all that listen to My Voice, on the five continents of this world.

May this water consecrate all of you, just as the water of the Spirit of God washes the most profound wounds, and may it reignite in souls the Flame of the Original Purity.

Today you will sing a special song for Me, that will make you, in this time, reunite with Me everyday.

Mirarte (To look at You)...

While you perform this song, I raise Myself to heaven to someday return and bring to your hearts the same Peace that I live in the Kingdom of the Heavens, so that this Peace descends to Earth in all the hearts of the world.

I bless you and consecrate you, to the Immaculate Heart of Love, to the inextinguishable Love, to the eternal Love, to the unconditional Love, to the perpetual Love of the Mother of God.

In the Name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen

I thank you for responding to My call.

I thank you!
