APPARITION OF THE VIRGIN MARY DURING THE VIGIL OF PRAYER FOR PEACE IN THE NATIONS, IN THE CITY OF LIMA, PERU, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

Today I come to liberate an oppressed land so that it may reach the light of the Kingdom of God.

I have come here for these peoples, that I love and appreciate so much because of their perseverance in achieving peace; from Colombia to Chile, the sacred peoples of the Andes have not been able to teach the world more things because they disappeared through the actions of the white man.

But I am the Lady of all nations, the Mother of all peoples, and I come to amend the errors, to dissolve the suffering and to bring the Love of the Heart of God.

I have chosen to first come to Lima, because here there is a people in great need of God. A people that has delivered a plea to the Heart of the Firstborn Son, who has heard it. This is why I am here with happiness and the joy of meeting you, and of meeting some of you again in this life, to carry forward the mission of God, which no longer has a nation, language or border but rather union and brotherhood among the hearts that will be part of this New Eden, as the Americas once were.

I am here, dear children, to bring you universal healing, something very unknown to the world and to science.

Through the Light of My Hands, I come to bring you healing of the spirit and soul so that the suffering of your past may be erased and so that the new doorways to reconciliation may be established among nations and peoples so as to welcome into your hearts the call of God, that One Who comes for the last time to announce Himself, to bring to the world the Wisdom and the Mercy of God, through the message that tries in these times to permeate souls so that they may enter the path of salvation and redemption.

I come to give testimony to your hearts so that it is possible to experience relief and inner healing, so that they may resurface from within the Source where all is recreated and regenerated, where you can be permeated by the Love and Compassion of God, Who will help you and motivate you to take new steps towards a consecrated life, towards the life of the Spirit, towards the life of the Plan of God.

Today I come for the sake of the original peoples, but also for the peoples of today, who are the remnants of the first peoples, who are the ones in need of the greatest relief from God in order to face these times that will arrive at the doors of all lives.

Now trust, dear children, that you will be able to repopulate the New Earth through your conversion and redemption, through the acceptance of God's call, so that it may be edified in you and manifest in this planetary life, which also needs it.

Today I bring the flag of Peru as a mantle, which represents the expression of your culture and origins, those sacred teachings that were lived in the Andes by the first peoples, before the conquest. Teachings that were also kept in the Ark of the Covenant of God, where cultures left to the world that which white men did not understand and never understood, out of ignorance, lack of wisdom and even out of fear.

But just as I came to Mexico as the Lady of Guadalupe to unite that which was separate among humankind, cultures and peoples, today I come as the Lady and Mother of all Peoples, as the Sacred Woman who brings the Dawn of the New Aurora, so that hearts may spring forth in their awakening and inner healing.

May each of My Words be fulfilled in your lives. May each Word that I pronounce be a decree for the concretization of the Plan of God.

Live, dear children, in My Heart of hope, because your captivity will end; as well as the captivity that is spiritual and defeats souls without leaving them any strength to live the life of the spirit and get out of this illusion of material life.

I need, dear children, for you to re-educate your families in the basic principles of life so that your people may regenerate and acquire new values that will allow them to manifest the new consciousness and the New Earth, with you as participants in a new humanity that also must occur throughout all the Andes, in all these nations that embrace the sacred mountains, which are part of the sacred treasures of God, kept within them like the incandescent flame that illuminates everything and re-consecrates everything.

Recover the values of your ancient peoples. Do not be afraid to show the value of your culture and origins, because that too is a part of the Work of God.

Dear children, do not let yourselves be influenced by the modernities of these times, by everything that comes from outside this nation and is not part of the essence of your spirit and divinity.

I need you to continue consecrating yourselves to My Immaculate Heart through the act of your faith, love and constancy, through communion with Jesus, My Beloved Son.

In these recent times, the Holy Father visited you to give you the message that your people can experience the new times, completing your fulfillment with the heights and with all the values that you acquired in times past, as a people of wisdom, as a people that loves nature, creation, life, the elements.

This is why the Holy Father comes so often to the Americas, because it is not only part of that new humanity that He is building, little by little, but also because your people and the other peoples of the Americas must recover that which they lost with the advance of humans with the science they believe they have achieved, without having the Wisdom of God.

Be like the Sacred Condor of the mountains, which is always in high flight to revere God and to give the cry of hope in the subtle worlds, where the spirit of who offers themselves to God in love and truth is to be found.

May your sacred roots come to life again.

May your sacred codes be reintegrated today in your hearts and essences so that the fire of this new humanity may arise, a fire full of hope, joy, brotherhood and love.

I have come to Peru because it also must have this opportunity, this inexplicable grace that My Maternal Heart comes to grant to the nations of the world, especially the Americas.

The world must know that here there are values that are not lost, but rather beautifully kept in the Ark of the Holy Covenant of God. And I, as the doorkeeper of this sacred symbol of the celestial Universes, come to announce to you, dear children, that it is possible to again find that which you have already lost through the influences of these times.

May your holy Guardian Angels guide you upon this path to find the values of the sacred life in this land and the spiritual values that, in its original peoples, led them into being in contact with the Universe.

I am the Mother of the Races and of all ethnic groups, I Am the Lady of all peoples, Who comes to unite consciousnesses and nations in the essence of love, an essence of love that will allow them to understand and accept one another, in spite of differences or traits. But in truth, dear children, all are a part of the same people, of the same civilization and of the same project thought of by the One in His Creator Source of Manifestation and Light.

On this night of Vigil, dear children, we not only pray for Peru; Your Mother prays together with you for your people, but we also pray for the Americas so that from here the Sun of a New Humanity may arise, invaded by the Spirit of the Father and by the Light of His Redemptive Grace.

I thank you for being here today with Me in the simplicity of the heart, in the humility of your essences, because this, dear children, allows Me to also reach the world.

From here, in Peru, your Heavenly Mother can also help Venezuela, which is within My beads of the Rosary, so that someday I may return to put an end to captivity, together with the Archangel Michael. But everything has its time. Trust. Everything has its time. Everything is marked in God's time. Everything will be resolved when hearts simply accept the call.

In unity with the Father, I bless you and I bless this nation as Mother of the Church, as Mother of Hope and Reconciliation, as Mother of the Sacred Awakening, of the Sacred Inner Light of the original peoples, of those who once upon a time knew how to unconditionally love the Kingdoms and the Creation. This will also help, dear children, alleviate the suffering of sinners, of those who continue to commit mistakes and offenses to the Heart of God through transgression to the Kingdoms of Nature.

Someday humanity will know who they have at their side and that the Kingdoms created by the Father also have a purpose upon this planet.

I also thank all those who pray for the Kingdoms of Nature on a weekly basis. This is helping the essence of the Kingdoms so that they may have a sacred opportunity in new dwelling places, in the dwelling places of God in the Universe.

Each prayer bead prayed for the Kingdoms is a knot that is untied in the suffering of a neighboring Kingdom, be it mineral, plant, animal or devic.

Remember that each bead that you add for the Kingdoms weekly is a great knot of suffering that is untied, alleviated and healed.

I bless you in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

I thank you for responding to My call.

I thank you today for being here in union and trust. Amen.
