SPECIAL MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED FOR THE 55th MARATHON OF THE DIVINE MERCY, IN THE CITY OF CAMPINAS, SAO PAULO, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

Second Message

And the Breath of the Spirit of God will come to the Earth and illumine the souls of this world so that they may attain redemption and peace.

The strength of this Divine Spirit is unknown. It vivifies souls, fills hearts with Its Light and brings wisdom to all minds.

The Breath of the Spirit of God will come to the world at the most culminating moment of humanity, when religions will define their paths and when all peoples of the Earth will live their great and last transition.

The Divine Breath of the Spirit of God will not abandon those who believe in It, because the Spirit of God, which will fill hearts and lives, will expel darkness, will defeat the forces of chaos, because the impetus of Its fortitude is unknown, even more so when It is in the hearts that invoke Its Power and Its Divinity.

Today I come to announce the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God because some hearts already feel It, and in order to fully live It they must enter the path of humility; thus, the Breath of the Spirit of God will not distance itself and will bring much wisdom to your consciousnesses.

This Divine Breath of the Spirit of God is the same that was in Mary, My Mother, and in My companions, the Apostles.

It was the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God that allowed them to evangelize, convert the pagans and bring hope to hearts.

It was the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God that built Christianity in the essences, throughout the times and until today.

You, My companions, have internally decided to be filled by the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God, and this implies responsibility in your lives, which will never be able to be the same, as your paths will straighten and a new life will come, because the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God will make you assume responsibilities within the redeeming and spiritual Work of your Lord and Master.

Today I come to give you the blessing because the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God will come, which will manifest its talents, its virtues and gifts, and these will make of the apostles of Christ true missionaries of peace and service.

It is the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God that will prepare the coming of the New Christs and the awakening of the Christic essences, which will know how to enter, in these final times, in deep communion with God, with the Son and the Holy Spirit.

May the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God be the reason for your joy.

May the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God be the transformation of your consciousnesses and the redemption of your beings.

Because the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God will come with strength and the darkness will fear It because Its Light is powerful and invincible.

It was the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God that conceived the Consciousness of the Firstborn Son in the Divine Source of Creation, whence I descended to come to the Earth, to incarnate as a man and give testimony of the Word of Life, just as I do today, from My state of Ascension.

May the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God guide you, and do not fear, because the greater the battle, you must know, the greater will be the victory, the celestial victory.

Take refuge, companions, in the Sacred Spirit of God so that you may become invisible before the forces of chaos that subjugate millions of consciousnesses in the world.

Be sparks of the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God and the Earth will be repopulated with new graces and mercies, even though humanity does not deserve them.

May the state of communion with the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God be a reason for your joy, because thus you will help your Master and Lord to unite souls, unite consciousnesses and all religions under the Sacred Spirit of God.

It was the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God that created the Universe.

At the beginning of everything, it was the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God that for the first time emitted the Word, and the Word emitted Vibration, and, from that, sound was born, which gave form and life to all things.

First many more Sources were created so that the new life of all humanities might be welcomed by the Creator Fathers, the so-called Archangels.

In that time, the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God brought a new consciousness, in which nothing existed, and the Essence of the Divine Son and of the Holy Spirit, in the Sacred Trinity, conceived the new life in the whole Universe and in all dwellings that would receive the New Humanity.

At that time, the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God attracted to this Material Universe a very special Grace, which was the Birth and the emergence of the Essence of the Mother of the World, of the Mother of God and your Mother.

God gave you an infinite and grand Mother, pure and immaculate, who humbled Herself to incarnate on this planet and conceive, in Her sacred Womb, the Son of God, the Firstborn, the only Begotten Son, the Omnipresent.

From these facts that were kept in the whole memory of the Universe, may the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God renew your consciousnesses, erase the past and elevate your spirits to the non-material Source of the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God.

Today, My Merciful Heart brings you this Gift, inexplicable for the human mind, for all science, for any being on this planet.

It was this Sacred Spirit of God that decided that you would exist so that someday you might attain high degrees of love by means of the school of your Master and Lord, in the essence of Love-Wisdom.

Humanity is lost, and the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God, in the different Faces of the Father, by means of His Sacred Names, will come again to the world to fill the greatest number of souls with His Sacred Presence, with His Infinite Love, with His Unfathomable Mercy.

The Spirit of God is not venerated or recognized.

Recover your filiation with the Father, and humanity will be redeemed.

When the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God comes, many things will already be happening, but do not fear nor become desperate, because who believes in the Spirit of God will be saved and will have knowledge of where to be and what to do.

I would like your prayerful offering tomorrow to be reinforced, your inner offering to be even greater, as it was today, knowing how to respond to My call, knowing how to hear My Heart and communing with My Word.

I Am here because you want Me to be here, otherwise I would not be able to be.

For this reason, I come today with the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God to repopulate the Earth with new codes so that you may know that evil will end, that suffering will be dissipated and that healing will be achieved in the hearts.

As you live your tests, invoke the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God with the same sincerity and love that you have offered to your Master and Lord today, which has permitted to help the whole planet so that it does not suffer many more errors, nor many more transgressions to the very life that God conceived for you.

I invite you, companions, by means of the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God, to carry out an act of reconciliation with your beings and among your companions of path, as well as with your families so that the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God, in these definitive times, may be present at your homes and at each moment, and at each new step.

Seek the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God for those who do not seek It, and I promise you that in a short while you will not recognize yourselves, because you will have been transformed through your sincere offering to My Glorified Heart.

May the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God bless today those who will receive a Sacrament and have their feet washed, erasing the past, the error and the pain lived during the latest years of their lives.

May the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God renew you because it will be this Sacred Spirit that will be able to remain in your hearts when the Sacred Hearts withdraw and no longer come. You will remember this day and you must relive it so that you may not lose the inner strength to concretize the Work of God upon this planet.

While I bless the elements of the altar, may your act of reconciliation and offering to the Creator Father be elevated to the Universe, so that He may also bless you with the strength of His Divine Spirit, which will make you invincible before the forces of evil.

Father of the Universe,
Sacred Creator Heart,
Who made Life emanate from Your Divine Essence,
Who emitted the Breath of Your Spirit to manifest the Creation and to give life to Your creatures,
those which would praise Your Sacred Name for all Eternity,
sanctify these elements,
sanctify Your children,
heal the wounds, repair the hearts,
so that they may feel the inner strength of Your Spirit, and so that Your Spirit may be the reason for the renewal of their beings on the spiritual path.

May Your Purpose be fulfilled and may a New Humanity be gestated in Your creatures.

So be it.

I give the simplest everything I have, because in them is gestated My Trust.

More than two thousand years ago, I left you a testimony, a divine experience that also comes from the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God, which manifested itself as one of Its greatest Gifts, through the Sacrament of Communion.

Today I tell you again, companions, just as I told My ones inside a humble house in Jerusalem, where your Lord and Master prepared for His great and last surrender.

Taking the bread in My Hands, I said to the Almighty: "Father, accept the offering of Your Son, for the conversion of the sinners and the redemption of the impious".

He blessed the bread and at this moment, the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God spoke through My Mouth and I said to the Apostles, just as to the spirit of the holy women: "Take and eat all of you of it, because this is My Body, which will be handed over on your behalf for the forgiving of sins."

Likewise the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God blessed the Chalice and accepted the offering of His only Begotten Son and at this moment the Divine Word expressed to all those present in that time: "Take and drink all of you of it, because this is My Blood, Blood of the new and eternal Covenant which will be poured by Your Lord and by all martyrs for the forgiving of sins and the salvation of the mortals."

At this moment, the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God saved humanity.

May the Lord bless these elements under the powerful Light of the Cross of Emmanuel, in the name of the Father, the Son and of Holy Spirit. Amen.

May those who have not confessed today yet, do it internally, at this moment, before your Master and Lord, who comes to give you the absolution of your sins, the reparation of your hearts with the light of the Source of Eternal Life.

While you listen to the melody, confess to My Sacred Heart and do it for all sinners, especially for those who do not accept the Name of the Lord and create wars on the planet, division between nations and indifference between hearts.

Today, I Am availing Myself of all of your prayers that were pronounced this day so that the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God may also reach those who listen behind this means of communication.

The Reappearance of the Christ is taking place, and just as in the Gethsemane I stepped the bad serpent with My Feet, today I step with My Feet what causes pain, indifference and fear in hearts, and in this way, it will be dissipated.

I rise to Heaven hearing your songs that glorify even more My Sacred Heart so that It may pour Its Rays of Mercy, Grace and Redemption onto all planetary life.

I bless you, in the Name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

I thank you for being with Me today in the humility of the heart, in the simplicity of prayer and in the love of your spirits.

Receive My Peace as a balm for your lives and may this non-material Peace expand wherever you go. Amen.
