APPARITION OF SAINT JOSEPH IN THE CITY OF BAHIA BLANCA, BUENOS AIRES, ARGENTINA, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

I could not fail to be in Argentina, with your Mother, the Holy Mary. And uniting Our Sacred Hearts, today your Father Saint Joseph comes to bless you under the spirit of the New Nativity of the Lord, so that the heart of the families of the world may conciliate the spirit of Reconciliation and Peace.

That is why I am here, My children, in the name of Jesus and united with your Heavenly Mother, to propagate peace in the world, so necessary in these times, so that this peace, which must be tireless, may strengthen souls and the hearts that need Light and Love.

That is why I have come with your Holy Mother, not only to work with your inner worlds, but also to work with the planet, which day after day is in agony, losing faith and hope because of the lack of Light and Love.

Today I have come with your Heavenly Mother to tell you, My companions, servers of My Chaste Heart, that I am here with you on this path of transformation and surrender which your lives must conquer day by day.

Do not give up. Do not abandon the path of Christification. My companions, go within the path of unconditional prayer and of service, and I assure you, as your spiritual Father, that you will achieve self-transcendence and redemption.

Today I come to give you My special blessing, not only for you but also to the world. It was a request of Christ that Our Sacred Hearts, that of Mary and of Saint Joseph, should be here today among you so that the world may perceive that we have not abandoned you; that step by step we are walking together with your lives, on this trajectory that one day will conquer love, brotherhood, and sincere fraternity among all the creatures of this planet.

Be seeds of love, My companions, so that My Chaste Heart, with the Water of Life of Christ, may water them and you are able to sprout, and someday be trees on this planet, of the Wisdom of God, of Divine Unity, of an unconditional Love that will never tire you. On the contrary, it will lead you into loving your companions, your fellow beings, more each day, and especially those you still do not accept for being different in their lives and around you.

Today I have also come with your Heavenly Mother to consecrate, on this day of My Chaste Heart, the families of the world, which in these difficult times are trying to experience consecration, opening the doors of their hearts to submerge in the unknown and into the precious archetype of the Sacred Family of Nazareth.

Today, with this consecration that I will impart to your hearts and lives, may it be able to help you, chaste servers of My Heart, so that the families of the world, through your example of fraternity and charity, in the face of all the planetary need, may copy your example, follow in your footsteps and definitely enter onto the path of the Plan of God. For in that way, My children, you will be fulfilling the Will of God.

I will now let your Holy Mother of Heaven tell you what She has come to say, so that Her Voice and Her Message may resound in the world.

Meanwhile, companions of My Chaste Heart, pray inwardly so that through My divine intercession, at this culminating moment of the planet, while you are with your Heavenly Mother, I may go to meet with the families of the world, especially those that have lost love, reconciliation, and unity among beings.

Implore in silence to My Chaste Heart, so that I may share with you and with the hearts of the world the graces which God has granted My Sacred Heart.

Implore, inwardly implore to God, because My Chaste Heart will lift to Heaven the supplications of the hearts of this surface.

Implore God for peace, for the end of conflicts and of wars, that the Spirit and the Mercy of God may be established.

Implore from the heart until your souls feel the Love of the Father, the Love of the Son, and the Love of the Holy Spirit.

While very deep wounds are closed, hearts that had hardened are opening to receive the Grace of God and reconciliation in their lives.

This is the profound work of My Chaste Heart in union with the rest of the Sacred Hearts.

Today Heaven comes to bless Argentina, in order that all Argentines be strong in love and invincible in unity.

This will allow God to be close to you, and always stretch out His hand to take you to His Kingdom of Love and of Compassion.

Today, as the servant of the Great High Priest, Jesus Christ, we will bless the bread and the wine, so that the angels may transubstantiate their particles, and souls may again vivify their communion with Our Redeemer and Lord.

Like the sacred Unity which the Family of Nazareth experienced during the nativity at Bethlehem, may that Divine Unity with God expand through the world and especially in hearts that need it the most so as to awaken to a great service, to love, and to fraternity.

Through this blessing and this Grace, at this time may the consecration be fulfilled of the families of the world to the Divine Plan of the Creator and in union with the Sacred Hearts of Jesus, Mary, and Saint Joseph.

"Beloved Son, Jesus Christ, listen to the Voice of Your Servant, who you entrusted with the protection and guidance of the souls of the world."

"Today, beloved Lord of the Universe, I offer You the love, the renunciation, and the surrender of My Most Chaste Heart, so that divine particles of Light may be sown in the hearts that need to find peace and trust in Your sacred Will. Amen"

In the name of Our Lord Jesus Christ, and by the authority granted by Our Creator, for all the families in the world, My Chaste Heart blesses this Communion so that it may multiply the Graces in the world, that Healing and Redemption may reach hearts.

In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

Let us repeat the prayer of Sacred Unity together with Saint Joseph and Holy Mary.

Sacred Unity of God,
unify our lives,
unify our beings,
unify us in profound Fraternity.

Amen.

(repeat 3 times)

On this Christmas Eve, which draws closer to your lives and to the whole planet, may the Sacred Star of Bethlehem be able to be born in you, so that the world may receive the Light of the Grace and of the Mercy of God, which must emerge from your hearts.

I thank you for being with Us in this Divine Plan and for the redemption of humanity. Amen.

In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
