DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED during the journey from the city of Sao Paulo to Carmo da Cachoeira, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

To those pure of heart, the doors of Heaven are open.

To those pure of heart, the paths to forgiveness and redemption are open, and their souls may touch the Heart of God through their simple purity.

When thinking of human evolution, children, Your Creator manifested the birth and childhood of beings, because during this period of your lives you receive new opportunities to heal the incurable and redeem that which seemed impossible.

When a soul incarnates in the fragile body of a child, it manifests the purity of its essence and spirit. In this way, the soul remembers what is necessary to touch the Heart of the Father and return to Him.

Life after life, during their childhood, souls receive an opportunity to begin again before their most ancient debts begin to act in their spiritual consciousness and chart their destiny throughout one more life.

To be a child is to have doors open to heal oneself, redeem oneself, forgive oneself and return to God. Thus, it is very important that still, within this stage of life, souls begin to recognize the Divine Presence, His Mercy and His Grace, for it is in this way that such old spirits, once so lost, can again find God.

Pray for the children, and more than this pray for souls that, in small bodies and great essences, receive another chance to return to God and renew His Love.

May the purity of childhood not be lost, but rather may it be fruitful so that the destiny of souls may be drawn based upon love and forgiveness.

You have My blessing for this.

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
