DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED DURING THE JOURNEY FROM THE CITY OF TUSAYAN TO PHOENIX, ARIZONA, UNITED STATES, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

The beginning of a new cycle has come for each being of this Earth, and, above all, children, for this Work of Love that the Creator is building with His own Hands since the origin of your lives.

This cycle that begins will be permeated not only by awakening or purification but also by the maturity and the inner growth of your beings.

The time has come to consolidate the link of your hearts with God, and, after all that you have received in the name of humanity, to take a new step in the surrender of your lives, a new step toward your own inner self, a new step toward the Infinite that is held in your own heart.

The cycle of knowing the Forgiveness of God, through His Love and His infinite Grace, has arrived, so that, in this way, you may be true bridges between the hearts of humankind and your Creator.

This is the cycle to begin building what characterizes you as a race and as children of God, which is the deep union with Him through knowledge, not only of His mysteries but, above all, of His Love.

For this, you must constantly seek Him, feel Him and allow His Presence, although silent, to speak to your heart, and may it be with silence, with His Grace or with His Peace.

This is the cycle to experience God within yourself and, in this way, children, you may finally begin to unite the dimensions and attract a new time for this world.

You have My blessing for this.

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
