Daily message of Mary, Rose of Peace, transmitted in the city of Sant Esteve Sesrovires, province of Barcelona, Catalonia, Spain, to the visionary Friar Elias del Sagrado Corazón

Write your true story of love and purity in the depths of your heart and keep each experience as an unforgettable richness.

Through prayer, allow every space of your being to be illuminated and build, through constancy, the path towards the infinite Heart of Jesus.

Do not lose the strength of your spirit because of what is happening around you, but seek all the time that your transformation may be the example and model of holiness for others.

Find, in every dialogue with God, the reason to continue and let the Breath of His Divine Spirit transfigure every aspect of your being. For this to happen, the doors of the heart must be open and thus everything will be wonderfully transformed.

For the Lord, there is no wound that cannot be healed. For God, there is no obstacle that cannot be transcended. There is no separation that can disunite hearts if there is true love first.

Therefore, find in each new experience an opportunity to grow and let resistance fade from the consciousness.

Grow in humility, in holiness and in service.

Use every moment of life to fulfill the Plans of the Creator.

Perform every service as if it were your last. Love your neighbor as if it were the last time. Do not fail to express what you truly are and say no to pride and human indifference.

Love with the Love of Jesus and expand the light of your spirit.

Let the angels guide you on your paths to the sacred Temple of the Heart of Jesus; there you will find the purpose of your life and that of all humanity.

I thank you for responding to My call!

Who unites you to the Heart of the Father,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace
