

Invocation to the Divine Attribute of Humility

Prayer transmitted by Christ Jesus in His daily message on March 28, 2019.

Our Lord,
make me small and insignificant.

May my personality not take vainglory in anything, may my heart be a bridge towards Your holy Peace.

Lord, make me helpful and good, kind and merciful to others.

May my consciousness always receive the necessary corrections from life, may my human heart never close, may I learn to give thanks for all lessons and experiences.

May I do everything for You, Lord, and nothing for me, nor for my own imperfect will.

Teach me to empty myself.

Teach me in humility to recognize You alive and present in the Communion, in the consecration of life, in each one of the vows that I have proposed to take for You.

Lord,
destroy my pride,
dissolve my arrogance
and heal me from spiritual negligence.

May I learn to protect Your majestic Work from myself, may I no longer be a thorn in Your meek Heart but rather a flower at the foot of Your sacred Altar.

Lord,
light me up in Your Humility, vivify me in the constant void and redeem me in the loving fire of Your Heart constantly so that at least the smallest portion of my life upon Earth may be the testimony of Your Love and Your Divine Will.

Amen.
