

Prayer for Palm Sunday

On April 5, 2020, The Most Chaste Saint Joseph said:

"May this Palm Sunday take place not only in memory but in the heart, in the consciousness and in the life of all the disciples of Christ. You have My blessing for being the eternal and renewed dwelling place of the Lord."

Lord,
make of my heart Your new and eternal Jerusalem.
Enter into me with Your glory and majesty.
Direct Your steps towards the temple of my heart,
and, there, tear down every lie, vanity and selfishness,
all pride, arrogance and misery that separate me
from the true essence that dwells within me.

Allow this temple to become sacred through Your Presence,
Your Word and Your Heart.
Let Your Words find an echo within me
and, forever and ever,
may they resound in my consciousness
and become Life within my life.

Amen.
